11-30 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：十一月总结与十二月展望

完形填空原文

November is almost over. Our headteacher asked us to write a short summary of the past month and our plans for December. I sat down and thought about what had happened.

In November, I joined the school English drama club and made many new friends. I also improved my math scores 1 working with a study partner. However, I sometimes stayed up too late and felt tired in the morning. I need to manage my time 2 next month.

For December, I have several goals. First, I want to finish reading two English storybooks before the winter break. Second, I plan to exercise 3 at least three times a week to stay healthy. Third, I will help my little brother with his homework every weekend. These goals may seem small, but they will help me become a 4 person.

Our headteacher said that reflection helps us grow. When we look back at what we have done, we can see our progress and 5. When we look forward, we can set clear goals and work toward them. I will keep a simple diary in December to record my daily 6.

I am excited about the coming month. December brings the promise of a new beginning. I believe that with 7 and effort, I can achieve my goals. Let's welcome December with a positive attitude and make every day 8. The end of November is a good time to say 9 to the past and hello to the future. I am ready for the 10 and challenges that December will bring.
