中考英语完形填空：参加学校冬季趣味运动会

完形填空原文

Last Friday, our school held a winter fun sports meeting. It was different from the usual sports day because all the events were designed to be 1 and creative. Our class was very excited and started preparing a week before.

The first event was the three-legged race. I was paired with my best friend Li Ming. We had to tie our legs together and 2 to the finish line. At first, we kept falling down because we could not match our steps. But after a few tries, we found a good 3 and moved much faster. In the end, we finished third.

The second event was the balloon relay. Each team member had to carry a balloon between their knees and walk to the next person 4 dropping it. It looked easy, but it was actually very hard. Many students dropped their balloons and had to 5 over. Our team worked together and cheered for each other loudly.

The most interesting event was the tug-of-war. Our class 6 against Class Two, who were the champions last year. Everyone pulled the rope as hard as they could. Our faces turned red and our hands hurt, but nobody wanted to 7. In the last moment, we made a big effort and won the match. The whole class jumped up and down with joy.

After the sports meeting, our headteacher praised us for our teamwork and 8. She said that winning or losing was not the most important thing. What truly mattered was that we 9 the process and supported each other. I agree with her. This winter sports meeting taught me that when people work together with the same 10, nothing is impossible.
