中考英语完形填空：周末和爸爸去观鸟

完形填空原文

My father is a nature lover. Last Saturday morning, he woke me up early and said, "Let's go birdwatching at the lake!" I was still sleepy, but his excitement made me 1 to go.

We drove to a lake about thirty minutes from our home. It was a cold December morning, and the air was fresh. Father brought a pair of binoculars and a bird guidebook. He told me that winter is a great 2 for birdwatching because many migratory birds come to southern China to escape the cold weather in the north.

When we arrived at the lake, everything was quiet. Father whispered that we had to be 3 so we would not scare the birds away. We found a good spot behind some tall reeds and sat down on a small folding chair.

Soon, I saw a group of white birds flying across the water. Father looked through the binoculars and said 4, "Those are egrets! Look at how gracefully they fly." I took the binoculars and saw their long necks and beautiful white feathers. They were truly 5.

Over the next two hours, we spotted more than ten different kinds of birds. Father helped me identify each one using the guidebook. I learned to 6 a kingfisher by its bright blue color and a sparrow by its small round body. My favorite was a mandarin duck with colorful feathers that looked like a 7.

Father took many photos with his camera. He said he would print the best ones and help me make a bird observation 8. I thought that was a great idea.

On the way home, Father said, "Nature is the best classroom. It teaches us to observe, to be patient, and to 9 the beauty of life." I agreed. This birdwatching trip opened my eyes to the wonderful world of birds. I hope we can do this more 10 in the future.
