中考英语完形填空：学校举办英语歌曲大赛

完形填空原文

Our school holds an English Song Contest every December. This year, my friend Xiao Li and I decided to enter as a duo. We both loved singing, but performing on stage was a different 1.

We spent a week choosing the right song. Xiao Li suggested a fast pop song, but I thought a slower ballad would be easier to sing well. After listening to many songs, we finally picked "You Raise Me Up" because the melody was beautiful and the 2 were meaningful.

We practiced every day during lunch break. At first, our voices did not blend well. Xiao Li sang too 3 and I sang too softly. Our music teacher heard us and offered some advice. She taught us how to control our volume and breathe 4 while singing. After a few days, our harmony improved a lot.

The night before the contest, I could not 5. I kept imagining myself forgetting the words on stage. I told Xiao Li about my worry, and she said, "Just focus on the music and forget about the audience. We have practiced so many times—we are 6."

On the day of the contest, the school hall was packed with students and teachers. When our turn came, I took a deep breath and walked onto the stage. The music started, and I began to sing. 7, my nervousness disappeared as I focused on the melody. Xiao Li and I looked at each other and smiled. Our voices filled the hall, and I could see some teachers nodding along.

When we finished, the audience gave us warm 8. We did not win first prize—that went to a group who performed a creative English rap. But we received the "Most Beautiful Harmony" award.

Walking off the stage, I felt incredibly 9. This experience taught me that courage is not the absence of fear, but the willingness to 10 even when you are afraid.
