参考范文

A New Start

September 1st was the first day of the new term. As I walked through the school gate, I felt both nervous and excited. The campus looked fresh and bright after the summer holiday. I was so happy to see my old friends again, and we couldn't wait to share our summer stories.

This term, I have set several goals for myself. First of all, I plan to read at least two English books every month to improve my vocabulary. What's more, I will listen more carefully in class and review my notes every evening. I believe a good plan is the first step to success.

As the saying goes, "A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step." Let's work hard together and make this new term the best one ever. I'm sure we will all shine!
