参考范文

Campus Safety

School is our second home, and safety should always come first. However, there are some hidden dangers on campus that we should pay attention to.

For example, some students run and chase each other during breaks, which may cause falls and injuries. The stairs can be very crowded between classes, and pushing may lead to accidents. Some students also eat snacks from unknown sources, which is bad for their health. These may seem like small things, but they can lead to serious consequences.

To keep our campus safe, here are some suggestions. First, walk instead of running in corridors and on stairs — always keep to the right side. Second, never touch electrical equipment without permission. Third, only eat food from the school canteen or trusted stores. Last, it's a good idea to learn some basic first aid, such as how to treat a cut or a burn.

Remember, safety is no accident — it's a habit. Let's all be careful and make our school a safer place!

全文翻译

校园安全

学校是我们的第二个家，安全始终应该放在第一位。然而，校园中有一些我们应该注意的安全隐患。

例如，一些同学在课间追逐打闹，可能导致摔倒和受伤。课间楼梯非常拥挤，推搡可能引发事故。一些同学还吃来源不明的零食，这对健康有害。这些看似小事，但可能导致严重后果。

为了保障校园安全，以下是一些建议。首先，在走廊和楼梯上走路而不是跑——始终靠右行走。其次，未经允许不要触碰电器设备。第三，只吃学校食堂或正规商店的食品。最后，学一些基本的急救知识，比如怎样处理割伤或烫伤，是个好主意。

记住，安全不是偶然的——它是一种习惯。让我们都多加小心，让校园成为更安全的地方！
