① Will Robots Take Over Human Jobs?

② With the rapid development of technology, robots and AI (人工智能) are becoming more common in our daily life. They work in factories, serve in restaurants, and even drive cars. Many people worry: will robots replace human workers one day? This question has caused a lot of discussion.

④ Those who disagree argue that robots cannot replace humans in every way. First, robots lack creativity and emotions. They cannot invent new ideas, show kindness, or understand people's feelings. Jobs that need care, such as nursing, teaching, and art, still need human workers. Second, when some jobs disappear, new jobs will appear. For example, people are needed to design, build, and repair robots. Third, humans and machines can work together. Robots can do boring or dangerous work, while humans can focus on tasks that need thinking and communication.

⑤ What should we do? Instead of being afraid, we should learn new skills and adapt to the changing world. Students today should not only study textbooks but also learn how to use technology and think creatively. The future will belong to those who can work well with both humans and machines. Robots may change our jobs, but they cannot replace the value of human creativity and care.

注释： accurately 精确地；creativity 创造力；adapt 适应
