① How to Take the Subway and Bus — A Simple Guide

⑤ Getting off: Listen to the announcement (广播) to know which station or stop is next. Press the stop button on the bus before your stop if nobody else has pressed it. When the doors open, wait for people to get off first, then get on. Have a nice trip!
