07-14 第1篇

阅读理解（应用文）

① How to Write a Good Message in Your Class Yearbook

② Graduation is coming soon. Many students will write messages in their class yearbook (同学录) or graduation album (纪念册). Do you know how to make your message special and meaningful?

③ Be sincere. Write from your heart. Tell your classmates what they mean to you. Instead of just saying "Good luck," you can add something personal. For example: "I will never forget the day we worked together on the science project. Thank you for your help."

④ Keep it short but warm. You do not need to write a long letter. Two or three sentences are enough. Use simple, friendly words that show your true feelings. You can also share a memory (回忆) that you both enjoyed.

⑤ Add your best wishes. Wish your friends success in their future studies and life. Leave your contact (联系方式) so you can keep in touch. Sign your name at the end. Your classmates will treasure (珍惜) these words for years.

注释： yearbook 同学录；memory 回忆；contact 联系方式；treasure 珍惜
