The Surprise Birthday Party

① Last Friday was my best friend Li Wei's birthday. He had been feeling down lately because his parents were very busy with work and could not spend much time with him. I decided to do something special — I would throw him a surprise birthday party.

② I started planning a week before. First, I talked to Li Wei's mum on the phone. She loved the idea and said she would make sure Li Wei came home at 5:00 p.m. on Friday. Then I invited ten classmates. Everyone wanted to come. We agreed to arrive at Li Wei's house at 4:30 p.m., before he got home. I asked each person to bring a small gift and to keep the plan secret.

③ On Friday afternoon, we all arrived on time. Li Wei's mum let us in. We decorated the living room with balloons and a big banner that said "Happy Birthday, Li Wei!" We hid behind the sofa and the door. My heart was beating fast. At 5:05 p.m., we heard the key turn in the lock. The door opened. Li Wei walked in and turned on the light.

⑤ That evening, we ate cake, played games, and laughed a lot. Li Wei told me later that it was the best birthday he had ever had. Seeing his smile made me realise that the best gift we can give is our time and love. I was so glad I did it.

【题型】 细节理解

【定位】 第①段 "He had been feeling down lately because his parents were very busy with work and could not spend much time with him."

【解析】 原文明确指出李伟最近心情低落是因为父母工作忙，没时间陪他。A项"考试没考好"原文未提及；C项"和朋友吵架"无依据；D项"生病在家"属于无中生有。故选B。

2. 【答案】C

【题型】 细节理解

【定位】 第②段 "We agreed to arrive at Li Wei's house at 4:30 p.m., before he got home."

3. 【答案】C

【题型】 细节理解

5. 【答案】B

【题型】 推理判断
