阅读理解（应用文） Wang Family's Spring Festival Trip Plan

① The Wang family is planning a short Spring Festival trip together. Below is the plan drawn up by Mr. Wang, his wife, their son Kevin (14) and their daughter Lily (9). They hope to relax, see friends and enjoy the food of another city.

② Basic Information

Item	Details
Trip	Beijing → Xi'an → Beijing
Dates	Lunar Day 2 — Day 5 (4 days, 3 nights)
Transport	High-speed train (G-series)
Hotel	Green Bamboo Inn, 800 m from Bell Tower
Budget	About 8,000 yuan for the whole family

③ Day-by-Day Plan

- Day 1: Morning train from Beijing South to Xi'an North. Afternoon: walk on the Xi'an City Wall. Evening: small dinner in a local noodle shop near the hotel.
- Day 2: Full day at the Terracotta Warriors Museum. An English-Chinese audio guide will be rented for Kevin.
- Day 3: Morning: the Bell Tower and the Drum Tower. Afternoon: a calligraphy lesson for the children in a small art studio. Evening: the famous Muslim Quarter for local snacks.
- Day 4: Late morning train back to Beijing. Rest at home and prepare for school.

④ Tips for Kevin & Lily

- Bring a warm coat, gloves and a hat. Xi'an can be colder than Beijing.
- Take a small notebook to write three new things each day in simple English.
- Keep the hotel card in your pocket in case you cannot find the way.
- Never leave the parents' sight in crowded places.
- One hour of games on the train is OK, but the rest of the time is for reading, talking or looking out of the window.

⑤ Family Promises

- No one will bring a large camera, only mobile phones.
- Each family member can pick one "must-see" spot and one "must-try" food.

- After the trip, the children will make a short English picture book about the four days and show it to grandparents.
