01–30 第2篇

阅读理解（应用文） Invitation — Monday Evening Reading Club

To all Grade 7 students,

① I am writing to invite you to join our Monday Evening Reading Club at the school library. Mr. Zhao, our new English teacher, will lead each meeting. The club is open to all Grade 7 students who enjoy stories in simple English.

② Meeting Information

Item	Details
When	Every Monday, 6:30 p.m. — 7:30 p.m.
Where	Room 203, School Library (West Building)
Start date	Monday, March 2
End date	Monday, May 25 (13 meetings)
Fee	FREE

③ What We Will Do

- Read short stories together from English readers for young learners.
- Discuss the characters and choices in the story in small groups.
- Write a short book report (about 60 words) once a month.
- Borrow one "free pick" book from a special club shelf every week.

④ Rules to Remember

- Please come on time. If you miss three meetings in a row, you will be asked to leave the club.
- Please switch off your phone during the meeting.
- Do not eat food in the library. Water in a closed bottle is OK.
- If you borrow a book, return it in seven days. Lost books need to be replaced.
- Respect ideas that are different from yours. Calm discussion is welcome.

⑤ How to Sign Up

Please come to Room 203 during the lunch break on Friday, February 13 or 20. Bring your student card. The club will take at most 30 members this term, first come, first served. After you sign up, you will receive a small reading passport to write your book titles and notes.

I look forward to reading with you!

— Mr. Zhao
