阅读理解（应用文） School Book Exchange Market — Notice

① Do you have old books piled up in the corner of your room? Have you ever wished for a fresh new story to read during the weekend? The student council of No. 3 Middle School is happy to announce the Second School Book Exchange Market! Bring the books you no longer read, and take home new ones — for free!

② Event Information

Item	Details
Date	Saturday, April 24, 2027
Time	9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Place	Basketball court in front of the Library
Open to	All students, teachers and their family members
Cost	100% free — no money involved

③ How the Exchange Works

- Step 1: Bring up to 10 used books in good condition. Textbooks, cartoons with rude words, or books with broken covers will not be accepted.
- Step 2: At the entrance, a volunteer will give you a green "book ticket" for each book you hand in. One book = one ticket.
- Step 3: Walk around the market and choose books you like from the long shelves. Each ticket can be traded for one book.
- Step 4: Extra tickets can be saved and used at next year's market.

④ Special Corners

- English Corner: Novels, picture books and short stories in simple English.
- Science Corner: Easy science books about animals, space and daily inventions.
- Chinese Classics Corner: Poetry, fairy tales and short stories chosen by teachers.
- Donation Corner: Books left here will be sent to a rural school in Guangxi Province. Please add a small note on the first page: "To a friend I have never met."

⑤ Please Note

- Please write your name on a sticky note inside each book before bringing it, so that old friends' names can travel with the book.
- Do not buy or sell books for money anywhere in the market.

- Eating and drinking are not allowed among the shelves.
- If it rains, the market will move to the school hall. Check the weather notice on Friday evening.

⑥ For more help, please visit the Student Council Room (Room 203) during lunch break on Monday and Wednesday, or send an email to council@no3ms.edu. Let's make April a month of sharing — and let every good book find a new reader!
