阅读理解（应用文） City Young Handwriting Contest — Notice

① Dear students, the 16th City Young Handwriting Contest is back! The City Education Office, together with the Children's Library, warmly invites middle school students to pick up a pen, sit down quietly, and show the beauty of careful handwriting. In the age of the keyboard, the pen still has a voice — come and let yours be heard.

② Contest Information

Item	Details
Date	Saturday, May 15, 2027
Time	2:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. (please arrive by 2:10 p.m.)
Place	Reading Room 3F, Children's Library
Open to	Students of Grades 6 – 9 in the city
Entry Fee	Free

③ Three Groups

- Group A – Chinese Calligraphy (毛笔字): Students will write a famous Tang poem on a long red paper. Brushes, ink and paper are provided.
- Group B – Pen Writing (中英文钢笔): Students will copy a short article in Chinese or English. They may bring their own pen, but blue or black ink only.
- Group C – Creative Handwriting: Students may design their own Chinese character or English word on a small square of white paper. Creativity and beauty count equally.

④ Prizes

- Gold prize (1 per group): A set of fine pens, ¥300 book coupons, and a printed certificate.
- Silver prize (3 per group): A high-quality notebook, ¥100 book coupons and a certificate.
- Bronze prize (6 per group): A nice bookmark and a certificate.
- Best New Idea (1 in Group C): A personal handwriting workshop with a famous city artist.

⑤ How to Sign Up

- Online: Go to www.citylib-youth.org/handwriting and fill in the form before Sunday, April 25.
- At school: Hand a paper form to Ms. Lin, the Chinese teacher, during lunch break.
- Each student may join one group only. You cannot change your group later.

⑥ Please Note

- Students must bring their school ID card on the day.
- Phones must be turned off and placed in the teacher's box at the door.
- Please do not talk during the contest. A small red clock will tell you the remaining time.
- The list of winners will be posted on the library's website on May 22. Prizes should be collected before June 15 at the library.

⑦ For more information, call 0571-8266-4510 during the day, or send an email to handwriting@citylib.org. A good handwriting does not only show a letter — it shows a heart at peace. See you on May 15!
