03-27 第2篇

阅读理解（应用文） Junior Journalists Wanted — Bright Future School Newspaper

① Dear students, our school newspaper "Morning Light" is entering its 12th year. We are looking for 20 new junior journalists from Grade 7 and Grade 8 to join us from May 2027 to January 2028. If you love asking questions, writing short stories, or taking photos, this is your chance to put your words on the front page.

② What Will a Junior Journalist Do?

- Write one short article (120 – 300 words) every two weeks. Topics may be: class news, student hobbies, sports events, nearby community, or friendly book and film reviews.
- Interview teachers, classmates, and school workers; always keep a kind and polite tone.
- Take simple photos or short 15-second videos as support.
- Join the Friday editorial meeting (4:10 – 5:00 p.m.) in Library Room 205.

③ Who Can Apply?

- Students from Grade 7 or Grade 8 of any class.
- Basic writing skills in Chinese. English writing is a bonus, not a must.
- Friendly, patient, and willing to share ideas.
- Able to use a phone or school tablet for text and photos.
- No prior news experience needed.

④ How to Apply — Two Simple Steps

1. Write a 300-character self-introduction in Chinese, telling us:
   - Your name, class and one hobby.
   - Why you want to be a junior journalist.
   - One topic you would like to cover this term.
2. Attach one sample article (no more than 400 characters) about any event in our school or your neighbourhood.
3. Send both documents in ONE email to morning.light@bfms.cn before 10 April, 22:00.

⑤ Selection Plan

Date	Step
14 April	Email reply: we will invite 40 students to interview.

18 April Short interview (10 min per student), Library Room 203.
22 April Final name list posted on the red notice board, Floor 1.
27 April First meeting: meet the chief editor and receive a small press card.

⑥ What You Get

- An official "Junior Journalist Press Card".
- Free short training every month on writing, photo, and simple video editing.
- Priority seats at school events (sports meeting, open day, etc.).
- Community-service hours signed by the school.
- A warm team of friends who love stories.

⑦ A Few Simple Rules

1. Truth first. Always check your facts; never invent a quote.
2. Kindness matters. Protect other students' privacy; ask before taking their photos.
3. Deadlines are friendly. Send your article on time; if you cannot, tell the editor two days before.
4. Quiet in meetings. Listen to others; share in order.
5. One warning only. Three late articles without reason, and the press card must be returned.

⑧ Contact

- Chief editor: Yan Meiyu, Class 8-4 — press.card@bfms.cn
- Teacher in charge: Mr. Wei, Library Office, 12:20 — 13:00

The world is full of small, bright stories. Come, and help us bring them to every student's desk.
