Summer Reading Passport 2027 — Information for Middle School Students

Every summer, our library gives free paper "Reading Passports" to young readers. Students use the passport to write down the books they have read, collect stamps, and get small rewards at the end of the holiday. This year's theme is "Stories Make Minds".

Who can get a passport?

- Middle school students aged 12 — 16.
- You must already be a member of our library; joining is free for school students with a valid student card.

When and where to pick up your passport

- From Wednesday 1 July 2027.
- Children's Desk, second floor of the main library.
- Please bring your student card. One student may pick up only one passport.

How the passport works

1. For each book you finish, ask any librarian at the Children's Desk to stamp one square in your passport.
2. The librarian may ask you two simple questions about the book — for example, "Who is the main character?" or "What did you learn?"
3. Each book can be recorded only once, even if you read it twice.
4. Comics and magazines do not count this summer. Picture books count if they have more than 300 words.
5. You may record up to three books a day, no more.

Rewards

Stamps	Reward
5	A small bookmark with a hand-painted drawing
10	A cotton reading bag from the library
15	A free ticket for the "Writer Meets Reader" event on 26 August

20	A special "Top Summer Reader" paper certificate, signed by the chief librarian
25 or more	A private 15-minute book-list talk with a children's author

"Writer Meets Reader" event

- Date: Thursday 26 August 2027, 14:30 — 16:30.
- Place: Meeting Hall, 3rd floor.
- Guests: author Han Yi and illustrator Wu Lei.
- Free, but you must have at least 15 stamps on your passport.

Rules and kind advice

- Please do not read more than three hours without a break; short walks and water are good for your eyes.
- The library is not responsible for lost passports. If you lose yours, we cannot write the old stamps back.
- Parents may sit next to their child in the reading area, but they should not tell the child the answer to the librarian's questions.
- Eating inside the library is not allowed. Water in a closed bottle is fine.

Closing of the programme

- The programme ends on Sunday 29 August 2027, 20:00.
- All rewards must be collected before Saturday 4 September. After that, we keep them for next year.
