阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School — English Festival 2027

Welcome to English Festival 2027!

From November 13 to November 19, 2027, Lihua Middle School will hold its tenth English Festival under this year's theme "English, My Window on the World". For one busy week, our whole school will turn into a small English-speaking island — posters, music, drama, and games will fill the corridors. All students (Grade 7–9) and all teachers are warmly invited to join.

Last year, we had over 1,400 students in 5 events. This year, we have added two new events and opened some of them to our parents, too.

Main Events

No.	Event	Time	Place	Open to
1	Opening Ceremony	Nov 13, Fri, 14:30	Main Hall	Whole school
2	Speech Contest (3 min)	Nov 14, Sat, 9:00	Main Hall	Top 2 from each class
3	English Drama Show (10 min)	Nov 15, Sun, 14:00	Art Theatre	Class teams
4	English Singing Night	Nov 16, Mon, 18:30	Big Playground	Student bands & solos
5	English Corner with Parents (NEW)	Nov 17, Tue, 16:30	Reading Garden	Students + parents
6	English Reading Marathon (NEW)	Nov 18, Wed, 13:00–17:00	Library	Students (by sign-up)
7	Closing Ceremony & Awards	Nov 19, Thu, 14:30	Main Hall	Whole school

How to Sign Up

- Class events (1, 7): No sign-up. Every student comes with their class.

- Speech & Singing (2, 4): Class teachers choose the top 2 representatives by Nov 1.
- Drama (3): Each class forms a team of 4—8 students, emails its script to `english@lihua-ms.cn` before Oct 27.
- English Corner with Parents (5): Students invite one parent; please fill in the online form at lihua.campus.cn/english by Nov 10.
- Reading Marathon (6): Sign up at the Library front desk; first 80 students only.

Rules and Tips

1. Every speech or drama script must be in English (not translated on the spot). You may use simple Chinese stage names or a short Chinese summary in the printed programme.
2. Please try to use only English at the English Corner; volunteer "translators" will help if someone is really stuck.
3. No videos, no AI voice for the Speech Contest — your voice, your words, your eyes.
4. Costumes for the drama show must be comfortable and safe — no long sharp props.
5. No food is allowed in the Main Hall or Art Theatre; there is a snack area in the Reading Garden.

Special Guests

- Ms. Emma Carter, an Australian middle-school teacher and story-teller, will give an opening speech and sit as a judge on the Speech Contest.
- Mr. Alex Nkomo, a science journalist from Kenya, will hold a short talk, "English and My Village", on November 15, 16:00, in the Library.
- Old alumnae who now work abroad will join the English Corner with Parents on Nov 17 and share short stories of their lives in new countries.

Prizes

- Best Speech (1 each in Grades 7—9): a reading lamp and a new English book.
- Best Drama (1 team): 1,200-yuan book-shop voucher + a trophy for the classroom.
- Best Singer / Band (2 in total): a wireless microphone and a framed photo.
- Top 10 Readers (in the marathon): a small badge and free entry to the school reading club for one year.
- "Most Friendly Corner" (voted by parents): a happy-face certificate and a special story-book for the whole class to share.

Contact & Notes
