阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School — "My Family Recipe" Cooking Contest 2027

One Dish, One Family Story

Dear Grade 7—9 students,

Our school is holding its first student cooking contest, "My Family Recipe" 2027. We want every student to learn one dish from their own family — grandmother's sweet rice balls, father's tomato noodles, or a quiet Sunday breakfast from a small village. Then bring that dish, and its story, to the Life Kitchen on Saturday, December 5, 2027.

- Theme: "A Dish, A Family, A Story."
- Date: Saturday, December 5, 2027, 9:00—15:00
- Place: Life Kitchen (Room 301, Art Building) + Main Hall for tasting
- Open to: All Grade 7—9 students
- Fee: 20 yuan per student (covers raw materials at school; bring your own special family ingredient if you wish)

How It Works

1. Sign up online at `cook.lihua-ms.cn` before Nov 20. Choose one of four groups:
   - A. Light & Healthy (soups, salads, steamed dishes)
   - B. Noodles & Rice (family noodles, fried rice, dumplings)
   - C. Sweet Moments (cakes, puddings, sweet soups)
   - D. "One Pot" Home Dish (braised meat, vegetable stews, etc.)
2. Write a one-page "Family Recipe Card" (in Chinese or English) before the contest, telling:
   - Who in your family taught you this dish,
   - Why the dish is important to your family,
   - The step-by-step recipe (6—10 steps).
     Hand in the card at sign-in on Dec 5.
3. Cook on the day — you will have 70 minutes at your cooking station. Only one dish per student; no outside help during cooking time.

4. Share in the Main Hall — at 13:00, finished dishes are brought to the Main Hall. Teachers, parents and classmates taste a small portion. The contest judge team decides the winners by 14:30.
5. Closing & prizes at 15:00.

Rules and Safety

- Students must wear long trousers, closed shoes, and a simple apron (we have extra aprons).
- Long hair must be tied back; no loose sleeves near the gas.
- No outside pre-cooked food. Bringing a chopped onion from home is fine; a full cooked dish is not.
- Students may use up to 2 pieces of kitchen equipment from home (e.g. a special bowl or rolling pin). Bring them in a labelled cloth bag.
- Only three kinds of sharp knives are allowed: the school's vegetable knife, the school's small bread knife, and the school's fruit knife. Other blades are not permitted.
- Every station has a teacher on duty. If fire, spilled oil or a small cut happens, stop and call the teacher right away.

Judges & Scoring

Part	Weight
Taste and balance	40%
Cooking skill and safety	25%
Family story (from the Recipe Card)	20%
Presentation on the plate	15%

Three judges will be invited: Ms. Fu (our Life Kitchen teacher), Mr. Hong (a local chef and father of a Grade 9 student), and Ms. Li (a food writer from the city newspaper).

Prizes

- Top 3 in each group: a small cookbook and a wooden spoon with their name.
- Overall "Most Loving Dish" Award (voted by parents): a family dinner voucher at a local restaurant, and a short interview in the school magazine.
- Best Recipe Card Award: a beautifully bound family cookbook, printed with your card as the first page.

- All participants who finish and share their dish receive 4 service-learning hours and a "Little Cook" certificate.

House Notes

- If you cannot come on Dec 5 because of illness, please tell the office before Dec 3; your 20-yuan fee will be returned.
- Photography is welcome, but please no flash near the gas stations.
- After the contest, any leftover food will be packed and given to the Sunshine Old People's Home in our district.
- The school will not keep any photos of students on its public page without your family's permission.

Contact

- Organiser: Life Kitchen + Student Union, Lihua Middle School
- Office: Room 301, Art Building
- Phone: 8822-6600 (Ms. Wang, Mon—Fri 10:00—17:00)
- Email: `cook@lihua-ms.cn`

  "Every family has at least one dish that tells you how to love. Come and cook yours for us."
