阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School — Autumn Calligraphy & Chinese Culture Week 2027

Lihua Middle School · Student Cultural Committee Autumn Calligraphy & Chinese Culture Week — 2027 "One Brush, One Breath, One Word" — Open Notice

1. Why This Week?

Each autumn, our school invites students to slow down for five days and hold a brush. In a world of fast keyboards and quicker screens, the calligraphy brush asks for something rare — patience, posture, and a steady breath. This year, we are also inviting a few foreign pen-pal friends from our partner school in Melbourne to visit, watch, and try a few strokes themselves.

2. When & Where

- Main Week: Monday 11 October — Friday 15 October 2027
- Main Hall: Teaching Block C, 1F — "Ink Hall" (calligraphy activities)
- Side Hall: Teaching Block C, 2F — "Tea & Story Room" (culture talks, quiet reading)
- Daily Open Hours:
  - Students: 12:30 – 13:10 (lunch slot) and 16:00 – 17:30 (after class)
  - Guests & Parents: Wednesday 13 October only, 14:30 – 17:00

3. Five Daily Themes

Day	Date	Theme	Activities
Mon	11 Oct	Brush & Posture	Basic strokes; sitting & standing practice
Tue	12 Oct	Kaishu — Regular Script	Copy the 8 strokes of 永 (yǒng)
Wed	13 Oct	Xingshu & Foreign Friends Day	Open to parents & pen-pal friends
Thu	14 Oct	Couplets & Autumn Poems	Write short 5-word poems
Fri	15 Oct	Exhibition & "Best Breath" Prize	Student works on open walls

4. Who May Take Part?

- All students of Grades 7–9. No earlier experience needed.
- Beginners join for free; ink, paper and brushes for practice are supplied by the school.
- Students who want to keep their own good copy for the Friday exhibition may buy a higher-quality rice-paper sheet for ¥3 at the check-in desk.

5. Rules in the Ink Hall

- Please remove thick coats before entering; ink is hard to remove from cloth.
- Phones stay inside bags; silent mode is not enough.
- No food or sugar drinks inside. A warm water station is provided.
- Help wipe your own table before leaving. One brush, one breath, one clean desk.

6. Friday Exhibition

- On Friday 15 October, the Ink Hall becomes an open gallery from 16:00 to 19:00.
- Up to three works per student may be put on the walls, with a small paper label (class + name + date).
- Three audience prizes will be given, chosen by student votes:
  - Best Breath Prize — calmest, steadiest writing
  - Best Growth Prize — biggest improvement during the week
  - Best Foreign Friend Prize — favourite work by a visiting pen-pal friend

7. Sign-Up

- Online: school portal → "Culture Week 2027"
- Window: Monday 20 September – Sunday 3 October 2027 (before Tuesday 5 October morning assembly)
- After sign-up, you will get:
  - A personal ink card with your name and class printed on it;
  - A reminder message one day before each day you signed up for.

8. A Gentle Reminder

The calligraphy brush is a slow tool. It will forgive your mistakes only if you first slow yourself down. Do not worry about beautiful results. Write one honest stroke; then the next. The best students of this week will not always be those with the best works. They will be those who came every day, even when their hand was still shaking.

9. Contact

- Ms Zhang Meilin, Cultural Committee Teacher, Teaching Block C, Room 205.
- School WeChat group: "Lihua Culture Week 2027".
- Emergency: front desk of Teaching Block C.
