阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School — Mid-Autumn Festival "Moon & Memory" Evening 2027

Lihua Middle School · Student Festival Committee Mid-Autumn Festival "Moon & Memory" Evening — 2027 A Gentle Invitation to Students, Teachers and Families

1. About the Evening

The Mid-Autumn Festival falls this year on Thursday, 24 September 2027. Because the next day is still a school day, our school will hold its evening celebration on the evening before the school holiday, so that families can later spend the real festival at home. The evening's theme is: "Moon & Memory — one round moon, one small story from our family."

2. When & Where

- Date: Friday, 25 September 2027
- Time: 18:30 – 20:30 (gates open at 18:00)
- Place: Lihua Middle School — Central Lawn + Main Auditorium (indoor back-up)
- End of evening: School gates close at 21:00 sharp.

3. Three Quiet Corners

The evening is gentle, not loud. Please enjoy it at a soft voice. Three quiet corners are open at the Central Lawn:

Corner	Name	What You Can Do
North	Moon Lantern Corner	Make a small paper lantern with a short wish inside
East	Family Recipe Corner	Share one short mooncake story (your grandma's recipe, a relative's old kitchen)
West	"One Round Moon" Poems	Read or write a four-line poem about the moon on soft card

There is no contest. Nothing will be marked. The only prize is the memory of the evening itself.

4. Performances (Main Auditorium)

- 18:40 — Guzheng: "The Moon at Home" — Lin Xinyu, Grade 9
- 19:00 — Choir: "Shui Diao Ge Tou" (English–Chinese blended version) — School Choir
- 19:20 — Short Story Reading (English): "The Pink Lantern in Grandma's Drawer" — Huang Jianing, Grade 8
- 19:40 — Family Instrumental: A father–and–daughter duet on flute, open stage for signed–up families
- 20:00 — Closing: A five–minute silent group moon–watching on the lawn (weather permitting)

5. Food & Drinks

- Each student may bring one small mooncake from home to share with a neighbour on the lawn. Please label it with your class + your name.
- Free hot pear water will be offered at the lawn's east side from 18:30 to 20:00.
- No sweet drinks, no instant noodles, no fireworks inside the campus.
- If you have food allergies, please add a small sticker (e.g. "nut", "milk") on your mooncake.

6. Dress Gently

- School uniform is not required this evening.
- We suggest soft, warm clothes in quiet colours. A scarf may be useful — late September evenings can be cool.
- Please wear comfortable shoes: the lawn may be slightly wet from the afternoon dew.

7. How to Take Part

- Students: simply come. No sign–up needed to enjoy the three corners.
- Families who want to join a performance: sign up on the school portal → "Mid–Autumn Evening" → "Open Stage", by Monday 22 September, 18:00.
- Mooncake story recordings (for next year's website): the Festival Committee will quietly record a few short stories on voice; if you would like to contribute, come to the East corner any time between 19:00 and 19:30.

8. A Thoughtful Reminder

The Mid-Autumn Festival has always been a festival of "returning" — returning to family, returning to memory, returning to a round table under a round moon. This evening at school is not a replacement for that homecoming. It is a small preparation — a chance to step out of homework, look up, and notice the shared moon together one evening earlier, before you meet the same moon with your own family the next day.

9. Contact

- Ms Jiang Yue, Festival Committee Teacher, Room 308, Teaching Block B.
- Email: `midautumn2027@lihuaschool.cn`
- On the night: a blue-vest student help team at Central Lawn Entrance A.

> "The moon can be seen from many windows, but the same moon is only shared by those who remember." — Lihua Student Festival Committee
