阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School — "Morning Breeze" Student Newspaper 2027 Autumn Recruitment

Lihua Middle School · Student Newspaper Committee "Morning Breeze" (晨风报) — 2027 Autumn Recruitment Notice Open to every student of Grades 7–9

1. About "Morning Breeze"

Morning Breeze is our school's student-run monthly newspaper. It has been running for eleven years. The paper has four pages, printed in both Chinese and English, and is read by more than 1,500 students every month. Every word in the paper — except the weather box — is written, edited or drawn by students.

This autumn, we are rebuilding the team and inviting new members to join.

2. What We Print Every Month

- Page 1 — Campus News: important activities, short interviews with teachers and students.
- Page 2 — Learning Corner: study tips, book reviews, English language columns.
- Page 3 — Voices: student opinion pieces, letters to the editor, debate on campus topics.
- Page 4 — Bright Side: student art, short stories, poems, comic strips, and photos.

3. Open Positions

Position	Main Work	Expected Time per Week
Reporter (6)	Interview teachers and students; write short campus-news pieces	3–4 hours
Editor (3)	Read, improve and shorten student drafts; check facts	4–5 hours
English Columnist (2)	Write one English learning column per month	2–3 hours
Illustrator (2)	Draw small comics and page art	2–4 hours

Photographer (2)	Take campus photos and short portrait pictures	2—3 hours
Designer (1)	Lay out pages with the student design tool	3—4 hours

Every member promises to work quietly, to respect all interviewees, and to never publish names or photos without permission.

4. Who Can Apply?

- Any Grade 7—9 student of Lihua Middle School.
- No paper awards or published work required. First-time writers are especially welcome.
- Students whose average grade has fallen below 65 in the last big exam are asked to join only the Illustrator or Photographer positions this term, to keep study in balance.

5. How to Apply

Please hand in two items at Room 212 of Teaching Block B or on the school portal → "Morning Breeze 2027":

1. A short application form (downloadable online) with your name, class, chosen position, and one paragraph (about 80 words) on why you want to join.
2. One short sample work:
    - Reporters & Columnists: a 150—250 word article on any school-related topic.
    - Editors: a short rewrite of a given 300-word rough draft (file available online).
    - Illustrators: one simple campus comic or sketch.
    - Photographers: three campus photos you have taken yourself.
    - Designers: one short A4 page you have designed in any tool (including paper).

6. Timeline

- Thursday 11 September — applications open on the school portal.
- Friday 26 September 18:00 — applications close.
- Saturday 27 September — first reading by senior editors.
- Tuesday 30 September 16:30 — short 10-minute chat with shortlisted students in Room 212.
- Friday 3 October — final list put on the school portal and on the noticeboard of Teaching Block B.

7. What You Will Get

- A small member card with your name, class and role.
- Your name printed on each paper you have worked on.

- A monthly editing workshop led by Ms Hou Qing (a journalist) from October.
- A quiet skill in writing, editing and designing that stays with you for years — and, some past members say, a lifetime.

8. Three Gentle Rules of the Newsroom

1. Never cheat facts. If unsure, ask again.
2. Never publish a person's face, grade, or private story without written permission.
3. Never mock a classmate in our pages, even as a "joke".

9. Contact

- Ms Hou Qing, student newspaper teacher, Teaching Block B, Room 212.
- Lin Xinhe, student editor-in-chief, Grade 9 Class 2.
- Email: `morningbreeze2027@lihuaschool.cn`
