阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School — 2027 Autumn English Speech Contest "My Small City, My Big Story"

Lihua Middle School · English Department + Student Union
Notice: 2027 Autumn English Speech Contest
Theme — "My Small City, My Big Story"

We are proud to announce the 14th Lihua English Speech Contest. This year, we invite every student to look at the place you live — your street, bus stop, park, corner shop or your own flat building — and turn one small true observation into a 3-minute English speech.

🎤 Key Dates

Stage	Date	Place
Script deadline	Friday 16 Oct, 17:00	Hand in to your English teacher
Class round	Mon 19 Oct – Fri 23 Oct	Your own classroom
Grade semi-final	Wed 28 Oct, 15:40 – 17:30	Lecture Hall (Building B, 2F)
School final	Sat 7 Nov, 14:00 – 17:00	Main Auditorium

Please arrive 15 minutes early at every stage for sound check.

📝 Script Rules

1. English only. You may write your first draft in Chinese, but the speech itself must be delivered in English.
2. Length: between 280 and 340 words — enough for about 3 minutes of clear speaking.
3. Theme: choose one small, real thing from your daily life in this city. For example: a kind bus driver, an old snack shop, a new river walk, the quiet morning market, your grandfather's tiny garden on a balcony. No general topics like "I love my country" — too large, too familiar.

4. Sources must be honest. If you quote a number, a poem line or a news fact, write the source at the end of your paper script.
5. Absolutely no AI-generated speeches. Work found to be fully produced by AI will be removed from the contest. Using an AI to check grammar of your own sentences is allowed and must be marked with a small "grammar-check" note.

🏆 Prizes (School Final)

- First Prize ×2 — English novel set (5 books) + a free one-day trip to the City University English Summer Camp (July 2028).
- Second Prize ×4 — English novel (1 book) + Bluetooth headphones.
- Third Prize ×6 — a hand-made wooden bookmark carved by our Art Club.
- "Best Story" Award ×3 — your speech will be recorded and broadcast on the school radio.
- "Best Pronunciation" Award ×3 — a one-hour 1-on-1 English club lesson with Ms. Harper (our Australian teacher).

🤝 Help for You

- Writing support: Mr. Lin's writing clinic, Room 308 (English Office), every Tuesday and Thursday lunchtime from 30 Sep to 15 Oct.
- Pronunciation & delivery: Ms. Harper, Wed & Fri afternoons (16:00 – 17:00), Language Lab 2. First-come-first-served; bring your draft.
- Tech rehearsal: at the semi-final and the final, our Tech Club will test microphones from one hour before the contest begins. Late arrivals will use the backup standing microphone.

❗ Other Reminders

- All Grade 7, 8 and 9 students may take part. Only two students per class will go to the semi-final.
- Parents are welcome at the school final on 7 Nov. Please pick up your entry ticket from the Student Union office (Main Building, Room 115) from 2 Nov.
- A short photo exhibition of all finalists will open in the school library from 9 Nov to 20 Nov.

A small street, told well, becomes a poem.
