Sunrise Community Neighbourhood Centre
Monthly Saturday — "Book Exchange Corner"
A free, friendly way to let your books meet new readers

Do you have books at home that you no longer need, but do not want to throw away? Every month our neighbourhood centre runs a Book Exchange Corner in the ground-floor hall. Bring some. Take some. All free.

📅 When & Where

Date (all Saturdays)	Time	Place
11 October 2027	9:00 — 12:00	Ground-floor Hall
8 November 2027	9:00 — 12:00	Ground-floor Hall
13 December 2027	9:00 — 12:00	Ground-floor Hall

On very rainy days the event moves to the reading room on the 2nd floor, and we post a notice on the building's main gate by 7:30 a.m.

📚 How It Works — Simple Four Steps

1. Clean your books at home (no torn pages; no books with personal notes on every page).
2. Bring up to 5 books to the Book Exchange Corner between 9:00 and 11:00.
3. Our helpers will put a small coloured sticker on each of your books. One sticker = one "book coin".
4. Use your "book coins" to take other people's books home. One coin for one book.

Leftover coins are saved in the centre's file and can be used at the next month's event.

✅ What We Accept

- Children's picture books, storybooks, young-adult novels.

- School textbooks still in use (Grades 1 — 9).
- English graded readers.
- General-knowledge and science books.
- Cookbooks, hobby books, travel notes.

❌ What We Cannot Accept

- Books older than twenty years; paper too yellow or brittle to read.
- Books with torn covers or many missing pages.
- Exam papers and private workbooks filled with a student's own writing.
- Magazines and newspapers (please put them in the recycling bins near the main gate).

🤝 Volunteers Needed

We need 6 student helpers and 2 adult helpers each Saturday. Student helpers receive a certificate of community service (2 hours).

- Sign up: scan the QR code on the notice board, or e-mail sunrise.books@city.cn before Thursday of the same week.
- Helpers must come 30 minutes early to set up tables and sort books.

📞 Contact & Help

- Ms. Wang, Community Library Office, 010-5588-0603, Mon — Fri, 14:00 — 17:00.
- If you cannot come but would like to donate books, our centre van can pick up boxes of 10 or more books within our neighbourhood, with two days' notice.

A book finishes its first life when the last page is turned. It begins its second life on someone else's shelf.
