🎒 What to Bring

- School tracksuit and comfortable sports shoes (no sandals, no new stiff shoes).
- A light jacket — it can be cool in the hills in the afternoon.
- A 500 mL water bottle (refill stations available in the town).
- Small backpack with: a student ID card, a pen, a notebook, one light snack, a paper tissue, and rain gear.
- Pocket money: 30 – 50 yuan, no more. Most meals are already paid for.

🚫 What Not to Bring

- No large cash, no valuable watches or jewellery.
- No game consoles, no Bluetooth speakers.
- No lighters, knives, fireworks, or any spray cans.
- Mobile phones are allowed for emergency contact with parents, but must stay in the bag during the paper-cutting workshop and mountain hike.

🚌 Safety and Rules

1. Travel in groups of six. Each group has one elected group leader (we will choose them in class on Thursday).
2. Buckle your seat belt on the coach. No standing, no eating, no loud games on the road.
3. During the mountain hike, stay on the marked path. Do not pick flowers or fruits from farmers' trees along the way.
4. If a student feels unwell at any time, tell your form teacher immediately. Do not walk alone back to the buses.
5. The school has arranged group insurance; please make sure your parents have signed the yellow consent form.

✍️ After-Outing Tasks

- Each student writes a 150-word diary entry (in Chinese or English) about one small moment of the day — a tree, a person, a conversation, a photo. Submit it to your form teacher by Tuesday 2 November.
- Each group of six submits one paper-cutting work from the workshop. The Art Office will display the best 10 works in the school library through November.
- Optional: upload one photo (not a selfie) to the class cloud folder, with a one-sentence caption. Photos showing strangers' faces clearly should first ask permission.

☔ Bad-Weather Plan

If the weather forecast for 30 October shows heavy rain or thunder, the outing will be moved to Saturday 6 November. The school will tell every family through the mini-app before 18:00 on 28 October.

Let the autumn air clear our heads, and let the old town tell us a few quiet stories.
