2027 Autumn Mental-Health Week
"Your feelings are not your homework. Put them down for a while."

The days are getting shorter. Exams are coming. Many of us are secretly carrying a small, heavy bag of feelings — worry before tests, fights with a best friend, an empty seat left by a grandparent. From Monday 26 October to Saturday 31 October 2027, our school will hold its first Mental-Health Week. Every student is welcome. No form, no queue, no mark.

📝 Daily Events — One Topic a Day

Day	Date	Theme	Main Activity	Place
Mon	26 Oct	"I Am Tired"	20-min opening assembly; feeling-card wall	School hall
Tue	27 Oct	"Friends and Small Fights"	Role-play workshop (Grade 7 and 8)	Music Room
Wed	28 Oct	"Before the Exam"	Breathing & study-plan clinic	Library
Thu	29 Oct	"Family"	Open writing: "A letter I never sent"	Art Room
Fri	30 Oct	"After a Loss"	Quiet hour + teacher-led sharing	Green Garden
Sat	31 Oct	"Look, I Am Stronger"	Student art show + closing tea	School hall

Every activity lasts 45 minutes. You may join one, several, or all of them. No attendance is taken.

🛋️ The "Warm-Corner" Room (Open All Week)

- Where: Building C, Room 106, next to the teachers' tea room.
- When: 12:10 — 13:30 (noon break) and 16:20 — 17:40 (after class).

- Who: Our school counsellor Ms. Yang + two trained senior student volunteers.
- What: a small sofa, a soft blanket, warm water, paper, colour pens. You may talk, or just sit, or draw. Whatever is said there stays there.

If you prefer to write rather than talk, there is a blue "Post-Box of Feelings" on the library wall. Ms. Yang reads it every evening and will reply in writing within three days.

📘 Small Things You Can Do — For Yourself and Others

1. For yourself. Sleep before 23:00 this week. Take a 10-minute walk after dinner. If you feel overwhelmed, tell one trusted adult today, not tomorrow.
2. For classmates. Say "Good morning" to someone who usually eats alone. Offer a seat on the bus. Remember: a kind word is a free gift that may change a whole day.
3. For family. Ask a parent or grandparent, "How was your day?" and actually listen for 60 seconds before speaking. It is a small question with a long echo.

🚫 What This Week Is NOT

- This week is not a mental-health test; there is no pass or fail.
- It is not a list of students' private problems for anyone to read — everything in the Warm-Corner Room is kept private unless your safety is at risk.
- It is not a performance; you do not need to "look positive" in public. Quiet, tired feelings are also welcome.

☎️ Emergency Support

If a friend — or you — feels deeply alone at any time, day or night, please call one of the numbers below right away:

- School duty teacher (night line, 21:00 – 07:00): inside the school gate, Room 001.
- City Youth Hotline (free, 24 hours): 12355.
- Ms. Yang's office phone (07:30 – 18:00): ask any teacher for the number.

You are not the only one. Our Week begins on Monday. Come with whatever you feel — we have tea, paper, and a sofa ready.
