10-22 第2篇

阅读理解（应用文） "Young Sophora" School Magazine · Call for Submissions (Issue 14)

Lihua Middle School · Editorial Team of Young Sophora 《青槐》
Winter 2027 Issue (No. 14) — "Small Lights in a Big City"
Writers from Grade 7, 8 and 9 are warmly welcome.

Four times a year, our school magazine 《青槐》 Young Sophora is printed in 1,200 copies, sent to every classroom, every teachers' office, every parent who asks for one, and our two partner schools in Gansu. The Winter 2027 issue (No. 14) will be mailed out on 20 December. Its theme is "Small Lights in a Big City" — the tiny moments and people that quietly warm our busy lives. We are now calling for student submissions from across the school.

🔪 What We Are Looking For

1. Short prose (散文/小品文): 400 — 800 Chinese characters, or 250 — 500 English words. A person, a place, a conversation, a smell — anything the theme brings to your mind.
2. Poetry (诗歌): 8 — 24 lines, Chinese or English. Please avoid rhyming just for the sake of rhyming.
3. Photo + caption: one photo taken by you in our city, plus a caption of 20 — 40 Chinese characters or 15 — 30 English words. Please do not use AI-generated images.
4. Illustrated comic page: one A4 page, no more than 8 panels, on a small true story that made you smile.
5. Mini-interview: a 400-word record of a short talk with a worker you met in the city (noodle-stall owner, postman, school guard, park cleaner, taxi driver, etc.), with their permission.

📜 Rules for Every Piece

- Your own work only. Pieces that are copied from the internet, magazines, or AI will be disqualified, and the writer's name will be quietly shared with all class teachers.

- No real last names of neighbours, classmates or teachers without their permission; you may use a single letter (e.g. "Mr. W") or change the name.
- Please keep the language clean and kind: no mocking of people's looks, jobs, regions, or body shape.
- One student may submit at most two pieces in total, across all types.

📮 How to Submit

- Online: school mini-app → "Magazines" → "Young Sophora" → upload. Save the file as `班级_姓名_体裁_标题.docx` (e.g. `701_LiXing_散文_街角早餐摊.docx`).
- Paper: drop in the green wooden box next to the library desk, marked "青槐投稿".
- Please include at the top of every piece: your class, name, contact phone (parent's OK), and a one-sentence description of why you chose this piece.

⏳ Important Dates

- Submission window: Monday 26 October 2027 → Friday 20 November 2027, 18:00.
- First-round reading by student editors: 23 — 27 November.
- Writer feedback (whether accepted, or asked to revise, or politely returned): 30 November.
- Final issue printed: 20 December.

🎁 Small Thanks to Writers

- Every writer whose piece is printed will receive 2 printed copies of the issue, plus a handwritten card from our teacher-advisor Ms. Xu.
- Three "Editor's Pick" pieces per issue will be read aloud at the Winter Assembly on 30 December, and each writer will receive a 150-yuan bookstore voucher.
- Photos and illustrations chosen for the cover will earn an extra one-year free subscription to the city library.

💬 A Note from the Student Editor

> "Last year, one Grade 7 girl sent us a 300-word piece about the old man who sells red bean paste on the corner. She thought no one would care. That piece became the most quoted page in the whole issue. Your small light may be exactly what we are missing."

— Liu Tianyu, Grade 9, Chief Student Editor

We are waiting for your sentences.

Editorial Team of Young Sophora
Posted 22 October 2027

注释： submission 投稿；prose 散文；caption 图片说明；panel (漫画) 格；voucher 代金券

根据通知内容，选择最佳答案。

1. What is the theme of Issue 14 of Young Sophora?

A. "The Big Problems of the World".
B. "Small Lights in a Big City".
C. "Old Friends".
D. "How to Study Hard".

2. Which of the following is NOT in the list of things the editorial team is looking for?

A. Short prose of 400—800 Chinese characters or 250—500 English words.
B. A photo with a caption.
C. A full 40,000-word novel.
D. An illustrated comic page of no more than 8 panels.

3. What happens if a student submits a piece copied from the internet, a magazine, or AI?

A. It will be printed with a warning.
B. It will be disqualified, and the writer's name will be quietly shared with all class teachers.
C. It will win the Editor's Pick.
D. Nothing will happen.

4. What is the deadline for submission?

A. 30 December 2027.
B. 20 December 2027.
C. Friday 20 November 2027, 18:00.
D. 1 October 2027.

5. What will the three "Editor's Pick" pieces of each issue receive?

A. Nothing extra.
B. A 500-yuan cash prize.
C. The pieces will be read aloud at the Winter Assembly on 30 December, and each writer will receive a 150-yuan bookstore voucher.
D. A school trip abroad.

答案与解析

1.
【答案】B
【题型】细节理解题
【定位】开篇 "Winter 2027 Issue (No. 14) — 'Small Lights in a Big City'"
【解析】直引。A、C、D 均错。故选 B。

2.
【答案】C
【题型】细节理解题（否定）
【定位】What We Are Looking For 列出五类
【解析】列表中没有长篇小说。A、B、D 均为要求之一。故选 C。

3.
【答案】B
【题型】细节理解题
【定位】Rules 第 1 条 "disqualified ... quietly shared with all class teachers"
【解析】双重后果直引。A、C、D 均错。故选 B。

4.
【答案】C
【题型】细节理解题
【定位】Important Dates "Friday 20 November 2027, 18:00"
【解析】截止时间直引。A 为颁奖日、B 为印发日、D 无依据。故选 C。

5.
【答案】C
【题型】细节理解题
【定位】Small Thanks 段 "Three 'Editor's Pick' pieces ... read aloud at the Winter Assembly on 30 December ... 150-yuan bookstore voucher"
【解析】奖励双项直引。A、B、D 均错。故选 C。