阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School International Food-Culture Day 2027

> Lihua Middle School · English Department + Geography Department + Student Union
> Saturday 14 November 2027 · "Small Plates, Big World"
> A day of cooking, tasting, storytelling — and saying hello in eight languages.

Our school has students from 13 provinces and two of our teachers have worked abroad for many years. The world, it seems, is already quietly living inside our classrooms. On Saturday 14 November 2027, we will bring it out into the school yard for one big, happy day. Please read this notice carefully. Some parts need you to act before 5 November.

📅 Quick Facts

- Date: Saturday 14 November 2027.
- Time: 09:00 — 15:30.
- Place: School playground + canteen + lecture hall.
- Who: all students of Lihua Middle School; parents are warmly welcome from 11:00.
- Cost: Free for students; parents please bring their school guest card.

🌍 The Eight Country Tables

This year, eight student groups (mixed Grade 7, 8, 9) will host a "country table". Each table cooks one small, safe dish and tells one short story from that country.

Table	Country	Sample dish	Short story
A	China (Shaanxi)	Roujiamo 肉夹馍	The 2,000-year-old road of wheat
B	China (Guangdong)	Cheung fun 肠粉	Morning tea in a busy city
C	Japan	Onigiri 饭团	Why is there a little dent on top?
D	Italy	Bruschetta 番茄面包片	The garden of Tuscany

E	Türkiye	Simit 圆环面包	A bread shaped like a bicycle wheel
F	Mexico	Chicken tortilla wrap	The corn that built a civilization
G	India	Mild chickpea curry 鹰嘴豆咖喱	Spices from sea to kitchen
H	Kenya	Mandazi 小甜饼	Songs sung at family breakfast

All dishes are egg-, peanut-, and alcohol-free. Students with food allergies will get a pink wristband at 08:45 with clear labels.

👩‍🍳 How Students Can Take Part

1. Be a host at a table. Sign up in your English teacher's office by Tuesday 5 November 2027, 17:00. Only 40 student hosts will be chosen; Grade 9 can join only if they have NOT signed up for another major weekend activity this term.
2. Be a small-stage performer. At 13:00, the lecture hall will host 20-minute "mini-stories from abroad" — Chinese calligraphy, a Kenyan song, an Italian recipe read aloud. Please send a short video or written plan to Ms. Xu (English office) by the same deadline.
3. Be a visitor. If you prefer to enjoy the day quietly, just come with a clean lunch box, a paper tissue, and a small notebook; you may collect a tiny tasting portion from each table.

🙋‍♀️ Rules for a Kind Day

- Eat only what you can finish. Food left over will be donated to a nearby community centre in the evening; please do not waste.
- Listen before you taste. At every table, the host will tell their 60-second story first. No cutting the line.
- Respect beliefs. Some classmates may choose not to eat certain dishes because of family or religious reasons. Please do not push them.
- Languages. Try to say "thank you" in the language of each table (we will print a small card for you). "Xièxie", "Arigatō", "Grazie", "Teşekkürler", "Gracias", "Dhanyavaad", "Asante" — these are the small gifts a day like this leaves in your mouth.

☔ Bad-Weather Plan

If the forecast for 14 November shows rain or temperatures below 6 °C, the event will move fully indoors to the canteen and lecture hall. Decision posted on the school mini-app before 18:00 on 12 November. The date itself will not change.

💬 A Note from the Organising Team

> "Every dish on every table has a grandmother behind it. Taste politely, ask gently, and take home not only a full stomach but also one new window into someone else's life."

See you at Table A.
