阅读理解（应用文） Lihua Middle School Winter Solstice Dumpling Day 2027

Lihua Middle School · Home Science Department + Student Union
Winter Solstice Dumpling Day 2027 — "One Short Day, One Warm Table, One Old Custom."
Date: Tuesday, 22 December 2027 (Winter Solstice — dōng zhì 冬至)
Venue: Teaching Block A — all 18 classrooms + Cafeteria North Wing
Hours: 09:30 – 14:30 (preparation and eating together during lunch extended period)

At Lihua, the winter solstice has, since 2019, been one quiet shared meal in the middle of the cold term. On the shortest day of the year (sunset at 16:52, giving us only 9 hours and 23 minutes of daylight), the whole school — Grade 7, Grade 8, Grade 9, plus teachers and kitchen staff — stops classes for two hours, folds dumplings together, eats them together, and, in the old northern saying, "protects our ears from the cold of the winter." This is not a competition. It is a small ceremony: the dough, the stuffing, the thin pink edges, and twenty-seven pairs of hands at the same long wooden table.

🕒 Timetable for the Day

Time	What	Where
07:40 – 09:25	Normal morning lessons (three lessons)	Classrooms
09:25 – 09:45	Short break — wash hands, tie aprons	Classrooms / washbasins

🥟 What to Bring (and What NOT to Bring)

Please bring:

- One clean apron from home (for hygiene).
- One small rolling pin if you have one — otherwise we provide.
- Hair band / hair clip for students with long hair.

Please do NOT bring:

- Raw meat from home. All meat is prepared by the school kitchen for food safety (temperature-controlled, rinsed and weighed in the morning).
- Any sharp kitchen knives. Only school-issued blunt edge knives are used.
- Personal electric kettles or stoves. Heating is entirely in the school kitchen.

👨‍🍳 Menu & Filling Options

The kitchen has prepared four fillings this year, pre-weighed into stainless bowls per class of 27:

1. Classic Pork & Chinese Chive (zhū ròu jiǔ cài 猪肉韭菜) — 4.2 kg/class
2. Egg, Tofu & Three Mushrooms (vegetarian) — 3.8 kg/class
3. Shrimp & Celery with a small ginger note — 2.5 kg/class
4. Pure Vegetable Five-Colour (carrot, celery, corn, mushroom, tofu) — 3.0 kg/class (for allergies & dietary needs)

Each class will prepare roughly 650 dumplings. Each student will fold about 24 dumplings (≈ 8 per filling type of their choice). Side dish: a simple stir-fried bok choy per cafeteria row. Warm drink: ginger-honey tea (no caffeine).

⚠️ Food Safety & Allergy Rules

- Any student with a food allergy must sign the "Allergy Card" at the homeroom desk by Mon 21 Dec, 15:00. Cards are coloured: green (shrimp-free), yellow (gluten-alternative: we offer rice-flour wrappers), red (strict vegan). Labels are pinned to that student's table position during lunch.

- No one eats food they have themselves dropped on the table or floor — even if the wrapper looks fine. A small bin is at each table.
- All fillings are cooked before serving; raw tasting is forbidden.
- A school-nurse station is set up in the cafeteria hallway (12:00 – 13:00) with trained staff.

🎶 Winter Solstice Story Corner (13:00 – 14:00)

- A soft playlist of guzheng and recorded winter-sparrow calls plays at low volume.
- Three students per class may read aloud a short two-to-three line winter solstice poem (Chinese or English).
- Signup: class monitors → Ms Hu → before 20 Dec 18:00.
- No microphones. Voices remain indoor-voices. Those who wish to continue eating or drawing are welcome to stay quietly.
- "Voice message to family": each student may, at their own desk, write one short paper line (not a screen text) to send home with the evening commute — for instance: "Mom, today we folded 24 dumplings. I made one with no filling by mistake. It was funny." The school will supply simple small kraft-paper envelopes.

🙋‍♀️ Volunteer Roles (36 students)

- 8 Filling Station Helpers (09:30 – 11:45).
- 4 Flour & Wrapper Team (09:30 – 11:45).
- 6 Allergy Card Stewards (across all three grades, 11:45 – 13:00).
- 6 Cafeteria Hosts (12:00 – 13:00, one at each long table).
- 4 Poem Corner Hosts (13:00 – 14:00).
- 4 Tidy-up Team (14:00 – 14:30).
- 4 Mini-app Photo Archivists (event photos go into the school yearbook; no faces posted outside school).

Sign-up: school mini-app → Student Union → Solstice Day. Closing: Fri 18 December, 17:30.

🧾 Small Practical Notes

- No class ranking or dumpling contest. We do not compete on speed, shape, or number.
- Teachers will also fold. In 2024, Mr Shen, our physics teacher, folded 34 dumplings in 90 min, a school record that has not been broken — but that is a joke, not a target.

- Kitchen-staff table: one long table in the cafeteria is reserved for kitchen staff, who will sit down and eat first this year, before students. Please give them the seats.
- Take-home portion: each student may take home 3 frozen dumplings (with school-approved ice pack), in case they want to share with family in the evening.

💬 A Word from Ms Hu, Chinese Department Head

> "On the shortest day of the year, in one warm kitchen, twenty-seven pairs of hands make hundreds of small soft parcels of something old. A dumpling is, in some way, a cold-weather poem: thin at the edge, warm at the centre, rounded and closed. Tomorrow will be slightly longer; the day after, longer again. Spring is already, quietly, on its way. This small lunch is our way of saying: we noticed the winter, we sat at the same table, we fed each other. We are not afraid of December."
