① Between Monday 13 December and Friday 17 December 2027, students and staff handed in 31 lost items to the Lost-and-Found Room. This week the Student Affairs Office reunited 19 items with their owners. 12 items are still waiting for their owners to come. Please read this bulletin carefully. If any item below is yours, visit Room 102 during pick-up hours with your student ID — nothing more is needed.

📦 Items Still Waiting (12 items, in order of hand-in)

No.	Item	Brief description	Where found	Date handed in	Keeper

Please note: item #10 (red diary) will remain closed at all times. It is stored inside a sealed paper envelope. Only the owner, with her student ID, may open it. Item #12 (silver ring) is kept in the nurse's small safe; please ask Nurse Song directly.

✅ Items Returned This Week (19 items — thanks!)

We happily reunited this week's owners with the following. No names are printed here to protect privacy, but we thank every finder by title:

Category	Number returned	Example finders
Water bottles	4	Mr Guo (Security), Ms Lin (Music), a Grade 7 student
Notebooks / workbooks	5	Ms Qin, Mr Zhou, a Grade 9 student
Small electronic items (earphones, USB)	3	Ms Yu, two Grade 8 students
Clothing (hats, scarves, gloves)	4	Ms Kang, a cafeteria auntie, a Grade 7 student
Keys and small personal items	3	Mr Qin, Nurse Song, a parent

Every finder is quietly thanked with a small green "Kind Hands" sticker on the student ID.

📋 How to Pick Up (three simple steps)

1. Come to Room 102, Main Building during pick-up hours, with your student ID.
2. Tell the duty student-volunteer the item number from this bulletin and one or two private details (e.g. for the red diary: what is written on the inside front cover; for the silver ring: the engraving).
3. Sign your name and date in the small brown pick-up book. No parent approval is needed for non-valuable items. For valuable items (keys, rings, phones, wallets), a short call home is made; the student waits in the corner chair.

If the item is not yours, please do not press your case; the volunteer will gently decline.

🕒 Deadlines (please read carefully)

- Small items (non-valuable): kept two weeks. If not claimed by Friday, 31 December 2027, 17:30, they will be offered free on the "Share-for-Free Shelf" of the school library (Sunlight Corridor, 3F).
- Valuable items (keys, rings, wallets, phones, ID cards, bank cards, diaries, bank slips): kept three months. If not claimed by Friday, 19 March 2028, 17:30, they will be handed to the local Ping'an Road Police Station (8 minutes' walk east of school).
- Diaries and very private writing: kept six months, unopened, and handed to the police station sealed if unclaimed.

Nothing is ever thrown away. Nothing valuable is sold.

🧼 Care While Stored

- All items are placed in numbered paper boxes on a shelf; small damp items are first air-dried for 24 hours.
- Water bottles are washed with hot water (not soap) before being shelved.
- Clothing is gently brushed; no washing machine is used (too much risk of shrinkage).
- Electronics are not charged or powered on.
- Diaries and private letters are not opened at any time.

🤝 How to Hand In Found Items (for students and staff)

- Found on campus between 07:00 and 17:45: bring directly to Room 102.

- Found after hours / before school: hand to the Security Gate duty officer (Mr Guo or Mr Liu); the item reaches Room 102 by 09:30 next school day.
- Found off-campus: please leave it where it is found; only items found inside school boundaries are the school's responsibility.
- A small paper form (date, place, finder's name) is filled in at hand-in; the form stays in the Room 102 ledger for six months.

❗ Quiet Kind Reminders

- Do NOT open any diary, letter, or envelope that is not yours, even out of curiosity. This is a soft school rule.
- Label your things: a small name-sticker on the inside of a bottle, on the spine of a notebook, or on the tongue of a shoe, reunites items with their owners three times faster (internal data, 2024–2027).
- Do NOT offer thanks gifts to finders. A small "thank you" is enough. Finders are thanked by the school, not by you.
- If you lose something you cannot find below, still come to Room 102 — many items are held discreetly for privacy and not printed in this bulletin (e.g. medical bracelets, family cards).

💬 A Small Word from the Student Affairs Office

> "A lost-and-found room is a small quiet room, usually no bigger than a classroom, but it is one of the honest rooms in any school. Every small found item is a reminder that somebody in our school building noticed what was not theirs, and chose, gently, to bring it home. This week, 31 items were handed in. Nineteen walked home. Twelve are still waiting, in twelve small paper boxes, under a soft light, for the small hands and small hurry of the students who love them. If any is yours, come before the year ends. Room 102 is open. The door is not locked."

根据通知内容，选择最佳答案。

1. What are the exact location, hours, and validity dates of this Lost-and-Found bulletin?

A. The pick-up room is Room 102 in the Main Building (next to the school nurse); pick-up hours are Mon — Fri 07:30 — 17:45 and Sat 09:00 — 12:00; the bulletin was issued on Friday 17 December 2027 at 16:30 and is valid until Friday 24 December 2027 at 17:30.

B. The pick-up room is the gym, open only Saturdays.
C. The bulletin is valid for one full month until January 2028.
D. Pick-up is only allowed at 08:00 sharp.

2. Which of the following statements about the 12 items still waiting is TRUE?

A. There are 12 items in total, all are water bottles handed in on the same Monday.
B. Item #10 (red diary) will remain closed at all times, stored inside a sealed paper envelope, and only the owner with her student ID may open it; item #12 (silver ring with the inside engraving "妈妈 2025-03") is kept in the nurse's small safe and must be asked for directly from Nurse Song.
C. All items are stored without any paper envelopes, and diaries are opened by volunteers every day.
D. Item #5 is a red coat kept in the cafeteria.

3. What are the three simple steps a student must follow to pick up an item?

A. Come to Room 102 at any time without ID, then take anything that looks like theirs.
B. Ask another student to pick up the item for them.
C. Go to Room 102 in pick-up hours with a student ID, tell the duty student-volunteer the item number from the bulletin and one or two private details (for the red diary: what is written on the inside front cover; for the silver ring: the engraving), then sign name and date in the small brown pick-up book — no parent approval is needed for non-valuable items, but for valuable items (keys, rings, phones, wallets), a short call home is made and the student waits in the corner chair.
D. Email the office and wait for six weeks.

4. What are the deadlines for different categories of items, and where do unclaimed items go?

A. Everything is thrown away after one week.
B. Non-valuable small items are kept two weeks (if not claimed by Fri 31 December 2027, 17:30, offered free on the "Share-for-Free Shelf" in the library's Sunlight Corridor 3F); valuable items (keys, rings, wallets, phones, ID cards, bank cards, diaries, bank slips) are kept three months (if not claimed by Fri 19 March 2028, 17:30, handed to the local Ping'an Road Police Station, 8 minutes' walk east of school); diaries and very private writing are kept six months, unopened, and handed sealed to the police station if unclaimed — nothing is ever thrown away and nothing valuable is sold.
C. Valuable items are sold at the end of term.
D. All items are handed to the city mayor.

5. What is the main message of the closing word from the Student Affairs Office?

A. Students must pay a fee to retrieve lost items.
B. A lost-and-found room is a small quiet room, usually no bigger than a classroom, but one of the honest rooms in any school — every small found item is a reminder that somebody noticed what was not theirs and chose gently to bring it home; this week 31 items were handed in, 19 walked home, 12 are still waiting in twelve small paper boxes under a soft light for the small hands and small hurry of the students who love them; if any is yours, come before the year ends — Room 102 is open and the door is not locked.

C. The school is closing its Lost-and-Found room permanently.
D. Only valuable items are worth returning.
