Year-End Volunteer Thank-You Ceremony 2027 — "A Small Room, A Warm Cup, A Quiet Thank You."
Date: Wednesday, 30 December 2027
Time: 16:00 — 17:10 (70 minutes, after last afternoon class)
Venue: Main Hall (1F), Lihua Middle School
No tickets. No entrance check. All Lihua students, staff, and one parent per student are warmly welcome.

① On the last Wednesday of 2027, Lihua Middle School will hold its annual Volunteer Thank-You Ceremony — not a prize ceremony, not a ranking event, but a small quiet hour in which the school family pauses to say "thank you" to the 238 student volunteers who gave, in small quiet pieces, about 4,760 hours of kind time during the 2027 school year. This year, volunteers helped with Reading Partners, the Library Book-Swap Fair, the Handicraft Fair walks to Sunshine Elderly Home, Morning-Light Run captains, Cross-Grade Reading pairs, Bus-Stop Guides on rainy mornings, Winter Solstice Workshop captains, Silent-Reading Morning library-basket carriers, and more. Every volunteer, without exception, is thanked. No student is named as "best" or "most". Every volunteer receives exactly the same small paper envelope, containing exactly the same three small things.

🕒 Ceremony Schedule

Time	Activity	Where
15:45 — 16:00	Guests arrive; warm lemon tea and ginger biscuits at the entrance	Main Hall foyer
16:00 — 16:05	Opening words by Principal Gao	Main Hall stage
16:05 — 16:15	"Our 2027 in Numbers" (short silent slide show; no names)	Main Hall screen

16:15 — 16:40	Thank-You Walk: each of the 238 volunteers walks quietly across the stage, shakes one hand, receives the thank-you envelope, and returns to her seat (target pace: 6 students per minute)	Main Hall stage
16:40 — 16:55	Three short volunteer reflections (2 min each): one Grade 7, one Grade 8, one Grade 9; draw by lot in advance	Main Hall stage
16:55 — 17:05	Closing words by Head of Student Affairs Ms Qin	Main Hall stage
17:05 — 17:10	Quiet exit; free hot tangyuan at the foyer kindness table	Main Hall foyer

✉️ What Is in the Thank-You Envelope (every volunteer gets the same three things)

Item	Content	Note
1. A small handwritten thank-you card	Written by Principal Gao, Ms Qin, or one of the nine homeroom teachers — 3–4 lines, no template	Each card is personal; not the same text as any other
2. A "Kind Hands" enamel pin	1.8 cm diameter, soft green, a single line drawing of two small hands	Worn on the uniform collar if the student wishes; wholly optional
3. A small sealed envelope marked "Open on 1 February 2028"	Contains a one-year reminder — a small thought to read quietly 34 days later	Private; not to be opened early; not to be shared with classmates

No money, no voucher, no gift card is given. The school believes that thanks given in paper and words — not in yuan — carry more weight.

🎤 The Three Short Volunteer Reflections (draw-by-lot)

Grade	Topic (chosen freely by the student)	Time
Grade 7	"One small thing I did not know I would learn this year"	2 minutes
Grade 8	"Someone who quietly taught me something, without meaning to"	2 minutes
Grade 9	"A small thing I now know about being a volunteer"	2 minutes

- Speakers are randomly drawn from the 238 volunteers on Monday 28 December by a simple paper-lot method. Any drawn student who does not wish to speak may decline without reason; a second lot is drawn.
- Each speaker writes her own short words; no teacher reviews or edits them.
- No names of other students are mentioned in the reflections, out of privacy.

- Applause is welcomed but not required. A single quiet nod from the audience is considered equally warm.

🪑 Seating (simple, no VIP)

- Seats are unassigned. First-come, first-seat.
- Volunteers sit among their classmates, not in a special front row.
- Parents and siblings sit in the back four rows to leave closer rows for students.
- Disabled seating and wheelchair spaces are in the second row, east side; please see Ms Song at the door.
- Phones off or silent; no photo taken of any student's face unless she nods yes personally. A Journalism Club photographer will take only wide-angle shots of the audience and stage.

🍵 Warm Kindness Table (16:55 — 17:10)

- Free hot tangyuan (one bowl of 4 small sweet rice balls with ginger broth) for every guest.
- Free warm lemon tea (100 ml paper cup).
- A small box at the side: any student who wishes may drop in one anonymous folded paper ("thank you to a volunteer I never told"); the box is read silently by Ms Qin on the first Monday of January, and the slips are then destroyed — they are not posted, not photographed, not archived.
- No food or drink may be carried into the Main Hall seating area; kindness table is in the foyer only.

🫶 Volunteer Privacy Rules (important)

- No student's name or hour-count is read aloud from the stage.
- No leaderboard of "most hours" is made.
- "Our 2027 in Numbers" slide show shows only group totals, never individual hours.
- Any student who does not wish to walk across the stage may quietly take her envelope from Ms Qin afterwards at the corridor door between 17:00 and 17:20. There is no penalty; the school respects shy students fully.
- Any student who wishes not to be thanked at all may write a small paper note to Ms Qin by 29 December; her envelope will be kept for her in a drawer indefinitely, untouched, until she requests otherwise.

📅 After the Ceremony (quietly, for the next school year)

- Volunteer sign-up for Spring Semester 2028 will open on Monday 8 February 2028.
- No 2027 volunteer is guaranteed automatic continuation; every student re-chooses each semester.
- No 2027 hour count is carried forward as an official "credit"; the hours were their own reward.
- A small volunteer-coordinator meeting for returning students will be held 16:00 — 16:45, Tuesday 9 February 2028, Room 204.

❗ Important Quiet Reminders

- This ceremony is not a competition. The word "best" will not be used on stage.
- The ceremony is optional for volunteers. Attendance is warmly encouraged but fully private.
- No applause meters, no music, no fireworks. A quiet hour is the entire point.
- Leaving early is allowed without signing anything; simply walk quietly out the rear door.
- If you are sick (fever, flu, cough), please rest at home; a special small envelope delivery will be arranged by Ms Qin for you within 3 school days.

💬 A Small Word from Ms Qin

> "In 2027, 238 Lihua students — about 29% of our whole school — did some small voluntary kindness for other people on our campus or in our community, usually quietly, usually without being noticed, usually for somebody who did not know her name. Somebody walked a book to Sunshine Elderly Home. Somebody sat with a Grade-7 student for 40 minutes every Friday. Somebody taught her grandmother how to send a voice message. Somebody carried a library basket up three flights. Somebody knelt down to a six-year-old at the compound gate and said, 'Are you lost? Come, I will walk with you.' We do not know, and we do not need to know, which of you did which. We only know that 238 of you did something, and that 4,760 hours of quiet kindness happened in a school building. On 30 December, for seventy minutes in a warm hall, we simply want to pause and say, to all of you together, thank you. That is all. No big words. No ranks. Just this small quiet hour. Come, if you can. You are the reason the school feels warm in December."
> — Ms Qin, Head of Student Affairs, 23 December 2027

根据通知内容，选择最佳答案。

1. What are the date, time, venue, and general nature of the 2027 Thank-You Ceremony?

A. Wednesday 30 December 2027, 16:00 — 17:10 (70 minutes after last afternoon class), in the Main Hall (1F) of Lihua Middle School, with no tickets or entrance check; all Lihua students, staff, and one parent per student are welcome; the ceremony is not a prize or ranking event but a small quiet hour in which the school family pauses to say thank-you to 238 student volunteers who gave about 4,760 hours of kind time during the 2027 school year, with every volunteer — without exception — thanked the same, receiving exactly the same three small things in one envelope.
B. Saturday 1 January 2028 in the gym, with a large competition and a VIP-only area.
C. Tuesday 29 December at the city stadium, with paid entrance of ¥50.
D. An online-only ceremony with name-ranking.

2. According to "What Is in the Thank-You Envelope", which of the following is TRUE?

A. Every volunteer gets a different amount of cash inside the envelope.
B. Every volunteer receives the same three small things: (1) a small handwritten thank-you card written by Principal Gao, Ms Qin, or one of the nine homeroom teachers — 3—4 lines, no template, personal to each student and not the same text as any other; (2) a "Kind Hands" enamel pin, 1.8 cm diameter in soft green, showing a single line drawing of two small hands (wearable on the uniform collar, wholly optional); and (3) a small sealed envelope marked "Open on 1 February 2028", containing a one-year reminder — a small thought to read quietly 34 days later (private, not opened early, not shared with classmates); no money, voucher, or gift card is given because the school believes thanks given in paper and words carry more weight than yuan.
C. Volunteers receive only money.
D. The envelope contains a competition ranking.

3. How are the three short volunteer reflections organised, and what are the speaker privacy rules?

A. Teachers pick the three students and write their speeches.
B. Students must speak about their own best accomplishments and praise themselves.
C. Three reflections of 2 minutes each come from one Grade 7 (topic "One small thing I did not know I would learn this year"), one Grade 8 ("Someone who quietly taught me something, without meaning to"), and one Grade 9 ("A small thing I now know about being a volunteer"); speakers are randomly drawn by paper-lot from the 238 volunteers on Monday 28 December, a drawn student may decline without reason and a second lot is then drawn; each speaker writes her own short words with no teacher reviewing or editing them; no names of other students are mentioned out of privacy; and applause is welcomed but not required — a single quiet nod from the audience is considered equally warm.

D. Reflections last 20 minutes each and must praise specific classmates by name.

4. What privacy rules protect the volunteers, and what options do shy students have?

A. All students' names and hours are displayed on a large screen.
B. There is a public ranking of "most hours" on stage.
C. No student's name or hour-count is read aloud from the stage; no leaderboard of "most hours" is made; the "Our 2027 in Numbers" slide show shows only group totals, never individual hours; any student who does not wish to walk across the stage may quietly take her envelope from Ms Qin afterwards at the corridor door between 17:00 and 17:20 with no penalty; any student who wishes not to be thanked at all may write a small paper note to Ms Qin by 29 December, and her envelope will be kept for her in a drawer indefinitely, untouched, until she requests otherwise.
D. Photographers take close-up photos of every student without permission.

5. What is the main message of Ms Qin's closing word?

A. Volunteers should compete for a gold medal next year.
B. In 2027, 238 Lihua students — about 29% of the whole school — did small voluntary kindness for others on the campus or in the community, usually quietly, usually without being noticed, usually for somebody who did not know their name (walking a book to Sunshine Elderly Home, sitting with a Grade-7 student 40 minutes every Friday, teaching a grandmother a voice message, carrying a library basket up three flights, kneeling to a lost six-year-old at the compound gate); the school does not know and does not need to know which of them did which — only that 238 of them did something, and 4,760 hours of quiet kindness happened in a school building; on 30 December, for seventy minutes in a warm hall, the school simply wants to pause and say thank-you to all of them together — no big words, no ranks, just this small quiet hour, because they are the reason the school feels warm in December.
C. The school will cancel all future volunteer activities.
D. Only Grade-9 volunteers deserve thanks.
