2028 New-Year Wish Board — "A Small Quiet Wall for Everyone."
Reference: WB-2028 · Published: Friday 31 December 2027
Open dates: Friday 31 December 2027 (13:40) — Monday 17 January 2028 (08:00)
Venue: Central corridor wall, 1F Building A (between the Main Hall and the Green-Leaf Library)

---

① The 2028 New-Year Wish Board is a small quiet wall that Lihua Middle School opens to every student, teacher, canteen worker, night guard, cleaner, librarian, and parent, for the 17 days between the last afternoon of 2027 and the first morning of the winter exam. It is not a competition, not a social-media event, and not a ranking of who writes the loudest wish. It is a single 12-metre white wall, lit gently, on which anybody in the Lihua family may pin a small 8 × 8 cm handwritten wish card, anonymous or signed, in Chinese or in simple English, for 2028 — their own wish, or a wish they would quietly like to send to someone else. Every wish is welcomed. No wish is ranked. No wish is removed until 17 January.

📝 Opening and Closing Times

Date	Time	Note
Fri 31 Dec 2027	13:40 (after lunch) — 18:00	Board opens; first cards pinned
Sat 1 Jan — Fri 14 Jan 2028	07:30 — 18:30 daily	Open during all school hours
Sat — Sun 15 — 16 Jan	10:00 — 16:00	Weekend reduced hours
Mon 17 Jan 2028	07:30 — 08:00	Final viewing before winter exam begins
Mon 17 Jan 2028, 17:00	—	All cards gently removed and archived

- Pinning is self-service: take a card from the Wish Table at the left end of the wall, write, pin it with one of the small wooden pins provided.
- Reading is free and quiet: walk slowly along the wall, read softly, do not lean in or photograph.
- No music plays near the board; the corridor stays peaceful.

🖊️ The Small Rules (printed on every wish card)

#	Rule
1	One card per person per day, up to three cards total across the 17-day window.
2	Maximum 50 Chinese characters or 40 English words per card; shorter is warmly welcomed.
3	Kind tone only. No ranking of classmates, no criticism of any student or teacher, no shop-promotion wishes.
4	No names of classmates, teachers, or staff written on any card — if a wish is to someone, use "to a quiet friend in 8-B" or "to the kind cleaner on the south stairs".
5	Anonymous or signed is up to you. Signed cards use first name only (no surname).
6	Cards may be written in Chinese or English (or both); spelling errors will never be corrected on the board.
7	No phone photographs of other people's cards; a small sign on each side of the board reminds all visitors.
8	No removing or moving somebody else's card is allowed; each card stays where its writer pinned it.

✨ Six Small Sub-Zones on the Wall (by gentle theme)

Zone	Suggested wishes	Small chalk label
1. For Myself	Private small wishes for personal growth, study, kindness to self	"My quiet 2028."
2. For a Classmate	Wishes to any classmate (name not written)	"Somebody near me."
3. For a Teacher or Staff Member	Wishes to any Lihua adult (name not written)	"Thank-you corner."
4. For My Family	Wishes for parents, grandparents, siblings	"Home and warmth."
5. For a Stranger	Wishes for someone the writer does not know but thinks of	"Kindness to nobody named."
6. For the City / Country / World	Larger peaceful wishes for 2028	"Beyond our wall."

Students may pin in any zone they wish. The zones are gentle suggestions, not boundaries. A card in the "wrong" zone is still welcome; no staff member will move it.

💌 A Small Example Card (for reference only — do not copy exactly)

Zone 2 — For a Classmate

Dear small friend at the third desk from the back,
You do not know me, and I do not know your name, but I have noticed that you eat lunch alone on Wednesdays. I hope in 2028 a small lunch friend finds you.

— From a student who also eats alone sometimes.

(44 English words. Zone-appropriate. Anonymous. Gently signed. A good card.)

🧠 The Monday 17 January Gentle Archive Ceremony

- At exactly 17:00 on Monday 17 January 2028, just after the last winter-exam paper of the day ends, Mr Qin and Ms Wu will quietly remove every card together from the wall.
- No photograph is taken. No newspaper report. No loudspeaker ceremony.
- Every card is placed into a brown paper archive box (reference WB-2028-Archive).
- The archive box is stored in the Green-Leaf Library's "2028 Winter Memory Drawer" on the second shelf.
- Any student may quietly open the drawer during library hours any time in 2028 and sit on the reading-corner cushion to reread the wishes. The drawer is open to students only.
- On Friday 20 December 2028, before the winter break, the whole archive box is respectfully burned in a small quiet ceremony in the school back garden, attended by three student representatives and Ms Qin. No loud speech; no media.
- Why burning? Because these are small quiet wishes, not permanent public documents. They were given one peaceful year to live; after that, their warmth remains, even if the paper does not.

🕊️ Privacy Rules (non-negotiable)

Rule	Detail

1	No card is signed with a surname; even signed cards use first name only.
2	No staff member is allowed to identify the handwriting of any card, on or off the board.
3	No parent may remove a card for any reason; cards belong to the school wall, not to any family.
4	No class discussion or homework assignment may be built on the wish board; the board is not a teaching material.
5	No media of any kind — school website, WeChat group, short video, local newspaper — may photograph or share the content of any card.
6	A student who recognises her own card should not point to it, talk about it publicly, or claim authorship; private authorship is part of the board's gift.

🮐 A Small Ritual Suggestion (fully optional)

If a student wishes, after pinning her card, she may quietly:

1. Stand two steps back from the wall for 30 seconds.
2. Read three other people's wishes, slowly, without commenting.
3. Place her right hand lightly over her heart, wish each of the three silently good luck in 2028.
4. Walk away without turning back to look at her own card again.

This small ritual is not required; it is only a small quiet way of letting go of the wish with a gentle respect. Any student who finds the ritual unnecessary may simply walk away after pinning. Both paths are equal.

❓ Frequently Gently-Asked Questions

Q1. What if I do not have anything to wish for?
A1. Then please do not pin. The board is warmly optional. A blank corner of wall is a perfectly valid wish.

Q2. What if I make a mistake on my card?
A2. Take another card quietly. The old one may be placed, folded small, in the mistakes basket at the Wish Table; it will be archived too, gently.

Q3. What if somebody ruins or tears a card on the wall?
A3. Please tell Mr Qin quietly. A replacement blank card will be pinned in the same spot with the note "card respected, rewritten 2028", and no student will be publicly blamed.

Q4. Can primary-school siblings of Lihua students pin a card?
A4. Yes — any small family member accompanied by a Lihua student is warmly welcome to pin a card during the opening hours.

Q5. Can teachers also pin cards?
A5. Yes. Teachers are welcome to write in Zone 1 (for themselves), Zone 3, Zone 5 or Zone 6. The Wish Board is a Lihua family wall, not only a student wall.

💬 A Small Word from the Student Union

> "Dear Lihua family, 2027 has been a long quiet year. We laughed, we were tired, we helped strangers, we forgot umbrellas, we grew two centimetres taller, we lost a maths exercise book and got it back, we took care of sick grandparents, we made thirty cards on Christmas Eve, and we listened to each other in silence on a Wednesday morning in October. Thank you for all the small kindnesses you quietly gave one another in the corridors, in the library, on the canteen trays, on the running track, and in the small corners of this building. Please, if you have one small wish for 2028, come slowly to the wall between now and 17 January and pin it. If you do not, that is also fine. Either way, we wish you a quiet, warm, honest 2028.
