参考范文

The mid-term exams are finally over. Looking at my results, I have mixed feelings — some happy, some disappointed.

On the bright side, I did well in English and Chinese. I got high marks because I reviewed vocabulary and key texts carefully before the exam. My reading comprehension also improved a lot compared to last time.

However, I did poorly in maths. I lost marks on the last two problems because I ran out of time. I realised that I need to practise more difficult questions and improve my speed.

For the second half of the term, I have a clear plan. First, I will spend thirty extra minutes on maths every day. Second, I will do timed practice tests every weekend. Third, I will ask my teacher for help whenever I meet difficult problems.

Every exam is a chance to reflect and grow. I will work harder and do better next time!

全文翻译

期中考试终于结束了。看着我的成绩，我心情复杂——有开心也有失落。

好的方面是，我的英语和语文考得不错。因为考前认真复习了词汇和重点课文，我得了高分。和上次相比，阅读理解也进步了很多。

然而，数学考得不好。最后两道大题因为时间不够丢了分。我意识到需要多练难题，提高做题速度。

下半学期，我有一个明确的计划。首先，每天多花三十分钟在数学上。其次，每周末做限时模拟测试。第三，遇到难题时及时向老师请教。

每次考试都是反思和成长的机会。我会更加努力，下次做得更好！

升格建议（3条）

建议	普通表达	升格表达
反思	I didn't do well in maths.	My maths score was a wake-up call wrapped in red ink.
计划	I will study harder.	I will turn every mistake into a stepping stone towards my next success.
感悟	Exams help us improve.	An exam result is not a final verdict — it is a progress report on the journey of learning.
