中考英语完形填空：夜市美食

完形填空原文

Last Friday, my cousin visited us from another city. To welcome him, my parents took us to the night market near our home. It was his first time visiting a night market, and he was very 1 about everything.

The market was crowded and colourful. There were hundreds of stalls on both sides of the street, selling food, clothes, toys, and many other things. The 2 of grilled meat and fried noodles filled the air. My cousin kept pointing at different stalls and asking, "What's that? Can we try it?"

We stopped at a stall that sold stinky tofu. My cousin took one look at it and 3 his nose. "It smells terrible!" he said. I laughed and told him, "It smells bad, but it 4 really good. Just give it a try." He took a small bite and his eyes went wide. "Wow, you're right!" he said. From then on, he was willing to try 5 new.

Next, we had some barbecued squid on sticks. The seller was very 6 and chatted with us while cooking. He told us he had been running this stall for over twenty years. "I started when I was young," he said. "Now my children help me." I could see the pride in his eyes.

After eating, we played some games at a stall. My cousin tried to throw rings onto bottles to win a toy. He 7 the first three times, but on his last try, the ring landed perfectly. He won a small stuffed bear and was so 8 that he danced around.

On the way home, my cousin said, "This is the most fun I've had in a long time." I felt 9 that he enjoyed our city. The night market is not just about food and shopping. It is a place full of life, laughter, and warm 10 between people.
