中考英语完形填空：游泳课

完形填空原文

Last summer, Mum signed me up for swimming lessons at the community pool. I had never learned to swim before, and I felt a little 1 about it. On the first day, I stood by the pool and watched other children jump into the water. They looked so confident. I wished I could be like them.

Our teacher, Mr Chen, was very patient. He told us that everyone learns at a different 2, and there was nothing to be afraid of. First, he taught us how to hold our breath underwater. "Take a deep breath, then put your face in the water and count to five," he said. I tried it and was surprised to find it was not as 3 as I had thought.

The next step was learning to float on our backs. I lay on the water and looked up at the blue sky. For a moment, I felt like I was flying. But when I tried to kick my legs, I went 4 and got some water in my mouth. Mr Chen laughed and said, "That happens to everyone. Try again."

By the third week, I could swim a few metres. My arms and legs started to work 5. The feeling of moving through the water was wonderful. I no longer felt afraid. 6, I looked forward to each lesson.

One day, Mum came to watch. She sat by the pool and smiled when she saw me swim. "I am so 7 of you," she said. Those words made me feel even better. Now I go to the pool with my friends every weekend. Swimming has become one of my favourite 8. I learned that with practice and courage, we can overcome our fears and discover new things we 9. The pool is no longer a place of fear but a place of 10 and joy.
