中考英语完形填空：爸爸的老照片

完形填空原文

One rainy afternoon, I was bored at home and decided to explore the attic. Among the old boxes and dusty furniture, I found a small album full of 1. They were my dad's old photos from when he was young.

I sat on the floor and looked through them one by one. In the first photo, Dad was about my 2. He was standing in front of a school gate with a big smile on his face. He looked so different from now — thin, with short hair and wearing a school uniform that seemed too big for him.

There were photos of Dad playing football with his friends, riding a bicycle on a country road, and sitting in a classroom 3 at the camera. In one photo, he was holding a trophy. I guessed he must have won some kind of 4. I had never known that Dad was good at sports.

The photo that caught my attention most was one of Dad standing beside a river with a fishing rod. He looked very 5 and relaxed. It reminded me of the times when Dad took me fishing. He always said fishing taught him to be 6, because you can never rush a fish.

When Dad came home, I showed him the album. His face 7 up with surprise and joy. "I haven't seen these in years!" he said. He sat down beside me and started telling me the 8 behind each photo. The football photo was from a match where his team won the school championship. The trophy was for a science competition.

We spent the whole evening talking and laughing. I felt like I was getting to know a completely 9 side of my dad — the boy he used to be. That rainy afternoon turned into one of the most memorable days of my summer, all because of a dusty old 10.
