中考英语完形填空：参观消防站

完形填空原文

Last week, our class visited the local fire station. It was an educational trip that I had been looking forward to for a long time. Firefighters are heroes. They risk their lives to save people. I wanted to learn more about their 1.

When we arrived, Captain Li welcomed us. He was tall and strong, with a kind smile. "Welcome to our station," he said. "Today I will show you what we do and how we work." First, he took us to see the fire trucks. They were big and red, with long hoses and ladders. Captain Li explained that each truck carries different 2. Some have water, some have foam for oil fires, and some have tools for rescue missions.

We also saw the fire suits. They are very heavy and can protect firefighters from heat and smoke. "When we get a call, we must put on our suits and get on the truck within one 3," Captain Li said. "Every second counts when someone's life is in danger." I was amazed. One minute! I could not even put on my school uniform that fast.

Then we had a drill. The alarm rang and we had to "escape" from a smoky room. We crawled low because smoke rises. We covered our mouths with wet cloths. It was not real, but I still felt a bit 4. I understood why it is important to know these skills. In a real fire, staying calm can save your life.

Captain Li also taught us about fire prevention. "Most fires can be 5," he said. "Do not play with matches or lighters. Do not leave the kitchen when you are cooking. Check your electrical appliances regularly." He gave each of us a small booklet with fire safety tips. I decided to take it home and share it with my 6.

Before we left, we took a group photo with the firefighters. They let us sit in the fire truck and try on a helmet. I felt like a real firefighter for a moment! On the bus back to school, we talked about what we had learned. My friend said, "I want to be a firefighter when I grow up." I said, "Me too. They are so 7."

That visit changed the way I think about firefighters. I used to think they only put out fires. But they do much more — they rescue people from car accidents, help during floods, and even save 8 from trees. They are always ready to help. I will never forget that day. It taught me to respect those who 9 their lives for others. We should all learn from their courage and selflessness. The next time I see a fire truck, I will remember the firefighters we met and feel 10 that such brave people are there to protect us.
