中考英语完形填空：给未来自己的信

完形填空原文

Dear Future Me,

I am writing this letter to you on the last day of the summer holiday. I am 14 years old now, a junior high student. I wonder what you will be like when you read this. Will you still 1 the person I am today? I hope so, but I also hope you have grown in many ways.

Right now, I have many dreams. I want to do well in my exams and get into a good high school. I want to learn to play the guitar. I want to travel to different places and see the world. I hope you have achieved at least 2 of these dreams. And if you have not, I hope you are still trying. Remember: it is never too late to pursue what you love.

I also want to remind you of some important things. First, never forget the people who have helped you. Your parents, teachers, and friends have given you so much. When you have the chance, 3 them. A simple "thank you" can mean a lot. Second, do not be afraid of failure. Every successful person has failed many times. What matters is that you learn from your mistakes and keep 4. Third, take care of your health. Exercise, eat well, and get enough sleep. Your body will thank you when you are older.

I am a bit nervous about the future. There are so many things I do not know. But I am also 5. I believe that with hard work and a positive attitude, you can overcome any difficulty. Trust yourself. You are stronger than you think.

When you read this letter, you might 6 some of the things I am worrying about today. You might laugh at how small those problems seem now. That is okay. It means you have grown. But please do not forget the feelings you had when you were 14. Those feelings — hope, fear, curiosity, and excitement — are what make us human. They connect you to the person who wrote this letter.

I hope you are happy. I hope you have found work that you love and people who love you. I hope you have not given up on your 7. Most importantly, I hope you are still kind — to yourself and to others. The world needs more kindness.

If there is one thing I want you to remember, it is this: you are 8 of great things. Do not let fear hold you back. Do not let others tell you what you cannot do. Believe in yourself, work hard, and never stop learning. The future is in your hands.

I will put this letter in a safe place and open it in five years. By then, I will be 19. I wonder what 9 will have brought. Whatever happens, I promise to stay true to myself. And I hope you — future me — have done the same.

Good luck, future me. I am rooting for you. Let us make our dreams come 10.

With love, Your 14-year-old self
