中考英语完形填空：周末登山

完形填空原文

Last Sunday, my family went hiking on Green Mountain. It was a clear autumn day, perfect for outdoor activities. We packed some water, snacks, and a camera, and set off early in the morning.

The path started gently. We walked through a small forest where birds were singing. The air was fresh and 1. My younger sister ran ahead excitedly. My father reminded her to slow down and save her energy for the steep parts later.

About half an hour later, the path became steeper. My legs started to feel 2. I wanted to stop and rest, but my mother said, "We're almost halfway. Keep going!" I took a few deep breaths and continued. Step by step, we climbed higher. When I looked back, I could see the whole town below. The view was 3.

We reached the top at noon. There was a small pavilion where we could sit and rest. We ate our sandwiches and drank the water we had brought. The wind blew gently, and we felt 4. My father pointed to the distant hills and said, "When you climb a mountain, you learn that the best views come after the hardest climb."

On our way down, my sister found a butterfly with colourful wings. She was so 5 that she tried to catch it, but it flew away. "That's okay," my mother said. "Some beautiful things are meant to be admired from a distance, not caught." My sister nodded, though she still looked a bit sad.

When we got home, we were all tired but satisfied. I had learned an important 6: challenges make us stronger. The steep path had been difficult, but reaching the top had made it all worthwhile. I also learned to appreciate nature more. The mountain had given us fresh air, beautiful views, and precious family time.

I hope we can go hiking again soon. Next time, I will bring a notebook to 7 the plants and animals we see. Maybe I can start a small nature diary. Hiking is not just exercise — it is a way to 8 with the natural world and with the people we love. I will 9 my parents to plan our next trip. There are many other mountains nearby waiting for us to 10.
