08-17 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：骑自行车环湖

完形填空原文

Every Sunday morning, my father and I go cycling around the lake near our home. It has become our favourite weekend activity. The lake is about five kilometres around, and it takes us about forty minutes to complete one 1.

We usually leave home at six o'clock, when the air is still cool and fresh. My father says the morning is the best time for exercise because the park is quiet and 2. We ride side by side along the path, sometimes talking, sometimes just enjoying the view.

The path around the lake is flat and well-maintained. Tall trees line both sides, providing shade on hot days. We often see people jogging, walking their dogs, or 3 tai chi by the water. Everyone greets each other with a smile or a nod.

Last week, we saw something special. A group of ducks were swimming near the shore. We stopped our bikes to watch them. The mother duck led her ducklings in a straight line. They looked so 4 that we could not help taking some photos.

My father taught me how to ride a bike when I was six. At first, I was afraid of falling. He held the back of my seat and ran beside me until I could balance 5. Now cycling has become a skill I use every day. I ride to school, to the library, and of course, around the lake with my father.

Cycling is not only good for our health but also a great way to spend 6 together. During our rides, my father tells me stories from his childhood. He says he used to cycle to school every day, rain or shine. Those stories help me understand him better.

Sometimes we take a break halfway. We sit on a bench, drink some water, and watch the ducks and boats on the 7. My father often says that we should appreciate the simple pleasures in life. A quiet morning by the lake is one of them.

I hope we can continue this tradition for many years. When I grow up, I want to bring my own children here and share the same 8 with them. Perhaps they will also learn to love cycling and the beauty of 9. For now, I will 10 enjoying these Sunday mornings with my father.
