中考英语完形填空：班级大扫除

完形填空原文

Last Friday afternoon, our class had a big cleaning activity. The headteacher announced that we would spend the last two lessons cleaning our classroom and the corridor. Everyone was asked to bring cleaning 1 such as brooms, mops and cloths.

When the bell rang, we quickly got to work. I was in 2 of wiping the windows. I mixed water with a little soap in a bucket and started cleaning. At first, the windows were so dirty that I could hardly see through them. But after I wiped them carefully, they became 3 and clear. I felt a sense of achievement.

Some boys were moving the desks and chairs to sweep the floor. They worked very 4 and soon the floor was clean. The girls organized themselves into small groups — some cleaned the blackboard, some arranged the books on the shelves, and some watered the plants by the window.

Our monitor, Xiao Ming, was the busiest. He 5 the work and made sure everyone had a task. When he saw that someone was tired, he would offer to help. "Teamwork makes the dream work!" he said with a smile.

About an hour later, our classroom looked completely different. The floor was spotless, the windows were shining, and everything was in 6. Our headteacher came in and looked around. She smiled and said, "You've done a 7 job! A clean environment helps us study better. I hope you can keep it this way every day."

We all felt proud of what we had achieved 8. Before we left, we took a group photo in our clean classroom. That photo now hangs on the wall as a 9 of our teamwork.

This cleaning activity taught me that when we work together, we can accomplish great things. It also made me 10 that we should take good care of our classroom every day, not just during big cleaning days.
