中考英语完形填空：班级英语演讲比赛

完形填空原文

Last month, our school held an English speech contest. My English teacher asked if anyone would like to 1. I was nervous, but I decided to try. I wanted to challenge myself and improve my spoken English.

I spent two weeks 2 my speech. I chose the topic "My Dream" and wrote it in English. Every evening, I practiced in front of the mirror. At first, I spoke too 3, and my voice shook. But day by day, I became more confident.

On the day of the contest, the hall was full of students and teachers. When my 4 came, I walked onto the stage. My hands were shaking, but I took a deep breath and began to speak. I tried to remember every word I had practiced. To my surprise, I didn't feel as nervous as before. I even 5 at the audience when I talked about my dream of becoming a teacher.

When I finished, everyone clapped. I felt so 6 that I had done my best. A few days later, the results came out. I won the second prize! I couldn't 7 it when my teacher told me the news. My parents were also very proud of me.

This experience taught me an important 8: If we dare to try, we can achieve more than we think. The speech contest was not just about winning. It was about growing and becoming 9 than before. I hope to join more activities like this in the 10.
