中考英语完形填空：帮邻居照顾宠物猫

完形填空原文

Last week, my neighbor Mrs. Wang had to go on a business trip. She asked me to 1 her cat, Mimi, for five days. I was happy to help because I love animals.

Mrs. Wang told me that Mimi was a 2 cat. She liked to eat twice a day and needed fresh water every morning. I should also clean her litter box and play with her for a while each day. "Don't worry," Mrs. Wang said. "Mimi is 3 and she won't bite you."

On the first day, I went to Mrs. Wang's house with a key. When I opened the door, Mimi was 4 on the sofa. She looked at me and gave a soft "meow". I gave her food and water, and she ate 5. Everything went well.

The next day, I couldn't find Mimi anywhere. I looked under the bed, behind the curtains, and in every 6. I was worried. Just when I was about to call Mrs. Wang, Mimi jumped out of the wardrobe! She had been hiding there. I felt 7 and laughed. Cats really like to hide in quiet places.

During those five days, I visited Mimi every morning and evening. I learned how to take care of a pet. It was not always 8, but it taught me to be responsible. When Mrs. Wang came back, she thanked me and gave me a small gift. She said I did a 9 job. I was proud of myself. Maybe one day I will have a pet cat of my 10.
