10-16 第2篇

中考英语完形填空：周末去农场摘苹果

完形填空原文

Last Saturday, my parents took me to a farm to pick apples. It was a sunny autumn morning and the 1 was fresh. We drove for about an hour and finally reached the farm. As soon as we got out of the car, I could see rows of apple trees with red and golden fruit hanging from the branches.

The farmer gave each of us a basket and showed us how to pick apples 2. "Choose the ones that are ripe and pull them gently," he said. "Do not shake the branches, or the apples will 3." I followed his advice and soon my basket was half full.

Walking between the trees, I enjoyed the peace of the farm. Birds were singing and bees were 4 around the flowers. I picked a big red apple and bit into it. The taste was sweet and delicious — much better than the apples from the supermarket. My father said that fruit tastes better when you pick it 5 yourself.

After we finished picking, we went to the farmhouse to pay for our apples. The farmer's wife offered us some homemade apple juice. It was so 6 that we each had two glasses. Before we left, we also bought some eggs and vegetables. The farmer said they were all 7 that morning.

On our way home, I thought about what a wonderful day it had been. Picking apples is not only fun but also teaches us where our food 8. I hope we can come back next year. Maybe we can try picking 9 like strawberries or pumpkins. I will never 10 this special weekend with my family.
