10-22 第1篇

中考英语完形填空：班级话剧排练

完形填空原文

Our school drama festival was only two weeks away. Our class chose to perform a short play called "The Lost Key." I was 1 to play the main character. We had our first rehearsal in the school hall last Wednesday.

At the beginning, nothing went well. Some students forgot their 2 and others spoke too fast. Our teacher, Ms. Chen, asked us to read the script again and again. "Don't rush," she said. "Take your 3 and speak clearly." We practiced the same scene many times until everyone got it right.

I had a lot of lines to remember. Every night before sleeping, I would 4 them in my bedroom. My mom sometimes helped me by reading the other parts. One day I made a big mistake on stage — I said the wrong line at the wrong moment. Everyone laughed, but I felt so 5. Ms. Chen comforted me, "Mistakes help us learn. Try again."

The day before the show, we had a full dress rehearsal. We wore our costumes and used real 6. This time everything went smoothly. Ms. Chen smiled and said, "You've made great progress. I'm 7 of all of you."

On the performance day, my heart was beating fast. But when the music started, I 8 all my nervousness and became the character. The audience cheered when we finished. We didn't get the first prize, but we learned that teamwork and hard work 9 more than winning. That experience of preparing for the play together will always 10 in my memory.
