中考英语完形填空：和妈妈一起去菜市场买菜

完形填空原文

This Sunday morning, Mum woke me up early. "Let's go to the wet market to buy some vegetables," she said. I usually spent my weekends 1 at home, but I agreed to go with her. I was curious about what a wet market looked like.

When we 2 at the market, I was surprised. It was so crowded! People were walking everywhere, and vendors were calling out prices. Mum held my hand and we 3 through the crowd. She said we should buy vegetables early in the morning because they were fresher.

We stopped at a vegetable stall. Mum 4 some cabbage and green beans. She asked the seller about the price and then bargained a little. I learned that it was okay to 5 the price before buying. Mum said good vegetables should look fresh and have a nice color.

Next, we went to buy some fruit. Mum chose a big watermelon. The seller 6 it and said it was sweet. Mum also bought some bananas for our breakfast. She put everything in a big bag and I helped to 7 it. The bag was quite heavy, but I felt happy to help.

On our way home, Mum told me that wet markets were different from supermarkets. Here, we could see where our food 8 from and talk with the farmers. She said buying local food was good for both our health and the 9. I thought about her words and felt that this simple trip had taught me something 10.
