中考英语完形填空：参加学校志愿者招募面试

完形填空原文

Last week, our school posted a notice about recruiting volunteers for the library. I have always loved reading and wanted to 1 something for the school. So I decided to sign up for the interview.

The interview was on Friday afternoon. I arrived at the meeting room ten minutes early. There were about twenty students waiting outside. I felt a bit 2 because I had never been to an interview before. I took a deep breath and told myself to stay calm.

Soon it was my 3. I walked in and saw two teachers sitting behind a desk. They smiled and asked me to sit down. The first question was, "Why do you want to be a volunteer?" I said I enjoyed helping others and could learn a lot from working in the library. They seemed pleased with my 4.

Then they asked about my free time. I said I had two free afternoons 5 week. They nodded and wrote something down. The last question was, "What will you do if a student makes too much noise in the library?" I thought for a moment and said I would 6 remind them quietly instead of shouting. The teachers smiled again.

After the interview, I waited for the result. Three days later, I got good news — I was 7. I was so happy! Now I will go to the library every Tuesday and Thursday to help 8 books and keep the reading area tidy. I believe this experience will help me grow and make new 9. If you also want to try, don't be afraid. Just be yourself and show your 10 to help!
