完形填空原文

Autumn was coming, and the sweet smell of osmanthus flowers filled the neighborhood. My mother suggested 1 osmanthus cakes together as a weekend activity.

We went to the market and bought rice flour, sugar, and fresh osmanthus flowers. The flowers were so tiny that we had to pick them 2. Mother told me to mix the flour 3 the sugar first, then add water little by little.

"Don't add 4 much water at once, or the dough will be too wet," she warned. I stirred the mixture 5 until it became thick and smooth. Then we pressed it into small molds and sprinkled osmanthus flowers 6 the top.

The cakes needed to be steamed 7 about twenty minutes. While waiting, I cleaned the kitchen so that it would look 8 when Father came home. When the steamer was opened, golden cakes appeared 9 our eyes. They looked so beautiful!

We enjoyed the warm cakes with tea. I was happy because I 10 learned a traditional recipe that I could share with my friends.
