中考英语完形填空：学做手工编绳

完形填空原文

My aunt is very good at making braided bracelets. She promised to teach me 1 I visited her last weekend. I was happy because I wanted to make one as a gift for my teacher.

She took out several rolls of thin colored cord and asked me 2 three colors. I picked red, gold, and white. "These colors stand 3 good luck, wisdom, and purity," she said.

The first step was to cut three cords of equal 4 and tie them together at one end. Then I taped the knot to the table so it wouldn't 5. My aunt showed me how to braid the cords by crossing them over each other in a specific order.

It sounded simple, but my fingers kept getting 6. The cords tangled several times, and I had to start over. "Don't worry. Everyone is slow 7 the beginning," my aunt comforted me.

After practicing for half an hour, I 8 got the hang of it. My hands moved more smoothly, and the pattern became neat. By the end of the afternoon, I had finished a beautiful bracelet.

I was so 9 of it that I showed it to everyone at home. The next Monday, I gave it to Ms. Li. She wore it on her wrist 10 and said she loved it. I felt warm inside.
