中考英语完形填空：假期骑自行车

完形填空原文

My neighbor, Uncle Zhang, is a cycling fan. During the National Day holiday, he suggested 1 a bike ride along the river with him. I immediately said yes.

We set off at seven in the morning. The air was fresh and the road was 2 empty because most people were still sleeping. Uncle Zhang rode ahead and I 3 closely behind. He told me to pay attention to the traffic lights and always stay on the right side.

After riding for about half an hour, we reached a beautiful park 4 the river. The autumn leaves were red and golden, and the view was breathtaking. We stopped to rest and took many photos. I 5 so happy that I posted some pictures online right away.

On the way back, the wind became 6. It was difficult to ride against it. Uncle Zhang encouraged me by saying, "Life is like riding a bicycle. To keep your 7, you must keep moving." I remembered this was a famous quote 8 Albert Einstein.

We returned home at about ten o'clock. 9 I was tired, I felt full of energy inside. I made a plan to ride 10 Uncle Zhang every weekend from then on.
