中考英语完形填空：学做手工书套

完形填空原文

To protect our textbooks from getting dirty, our class teacher suggested that we 1 book covers for them. Instead of buying plastic covers, she encouraged us to make handmade ones from cloth.

She said cloth covers were not only prettier 2 also more environmentally friendly. This idea got everyone excited. Some students had never sewn before, so the teacher 3 to give us a quick lesson.

She brought different kinds of cloth to class. I chose a piece with small blue flowers on it because it 4 me of spring. The teacher measured my textbook and helped me cut the cloth to the right 5.

Folding the edges and sewing them was the 6 step. I had to be very patient because the needle kept slipping out of my fingers. The boy next to me was having even more trouble — he accidentally 7 his finger twice!

After about forty minutes, I finished my first book cover. I slipped my English textbook inside and was 8 to see how well it fitted. The blue flower pattern made the book look much more 9.

Our teacher displayed several students' book covers and said, "I hope you'll keep these covers 10 the whole school year. They will remind you that small efforts can make everyday things special."
